NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS UNDER FERPA AND PUBLIC NOTIFICATION OF DIRECTORY INFORMATION

Notification of Rights Under FERPA for Postsecondary Institutions

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

(1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the University Registrar a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The University official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the University official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

(2) The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the University to amend a record should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed.

If the University decides not to amend the record as requested, the University will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

(3) The right to provide written consent before the University discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The University discloses education records without a student's prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using University employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the University.

Upon request, the University also discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

(4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

Public Notification of Directory Information

At its discretion, Illinois State University may provide "directory information" in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). Directory information is defined as that information which would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Designated directory information at Illinois State University includes the following: student's name*, address (local and home) telephone listing (local and home), Illinois State University email address, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, grade level, enrollment status (e.g. undergraduate or graduate, full-time or part-time), participation in officially recognized activities or sports, weight or height of members of athletic teams, target graduation date, degrees, honors and awards received, and the most recent educational agency or institution attended. Students may block the public disclosure of directory information by notifying the Office of the University Registrar in writing prior to the first day of classes.

Please consider very carefully the consequences of a decision to withhold directory information. A non-disclosure block will call for Illinois State University not to release any of this "directory information;" thus, any future requests for such information from non-institutional persons or organizations will be refused.

Illinois State University will honor your request to withhold directory information but cannot assume responsibility to contact you for subsequent permission to release this information. Regardless of the effect upon you, Illinois State University assumes no liability as a result of honoring your instructions that such information be withheld.

Although the initial request may be filed at any time, requests for non-disclosure will be honored by the University until removed, in writing, by the student.

*The name included on the student's ISU application (the student's legal name) is the name used for directory information purposes. If a student has also entered a preferred name in the Campus Solutions and/or HR system, that preferred name will be used ONLY for specific internal University operations and will not be used as directory information. To change your name for directory information purposes, you must change your legal name in the system. Information on how to do this is available at the University Registrar website or by contacting the Registrar directly at 438-2188. If you are also an employee, information on how to change your legal name for employment purposes, is available on the Human Resources website or by contacting them directly at 438-8311. Questions regarding use of a preferred name should also be directed to the above offices.

Academic programs and courses are offered in thirty-six academic departments and schools which are organized into six colleges. Over 20,000 students have a full range of study options in business, liberal arts, science, fine arts, education, applied science, technology, nursing, and pre-professional fields. Major classroom buildings are centrally located and are surrounded by the library and recreational and residence structures. The Central Illinois community of Normal-Bloomington, home of Illinois State University, has a population of over 150,000.

Faculty Information

Faculty whose names appear in the department faculty lists were teaching at the University during the previous fall semester. Because of sabbatical leaves, temporary assignments, research projects, and other reasons, not all of these faculty will be teaching in the period covered by this catalog.

Drug Free Workplace Policy

In response to and in compliance with the federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, Illinois State University reaffirms its commitment to prevent and prohibit the use and abuse of controlled substances on the campus or within facilities owned, operated, or controlled by the University. The following statement shall be considered a University policy applicable to all employees: the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, or use of a controlled substance is strictly prohibited upon any property owned, operated, or controlled by Illinois State University. Violators will be subject to Illinois State disciplinary action consistent with existing university policies, rules, regulations, and employment agreements.

University Policy Manual

The University Policy website, Policy.IllinoisState.edu, contains University policies and procedures including those approved by the Academic Senate. Also included are operational policies, the Code of Ethics, resolutions, statements and special committees.

University Commitment to Diversity

Illinois State University is committed to creating and supporting a welcoming, inclusive and diverse working and learning environment. Diversity, in all of its forms, is a critical aspect of our community and contributes to our overall excellence. The University supports a diverse faculty and staff who mentor and support a diverse student population. The University endeavors to provide opportunities for all students, staff and faculty to participate in a global society. In our strategic plan, Educating Illinois, Diversity is identified as one of five University core values and establishes goals and concrete actions designed to ensure that all members of the University community can succeed and thrive on campus and beyond.

University Office of Ethics

Any student, faculty, or staff member who believes they have witnessed a violation of the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act should report the violation immediately to the University Ethics Office. Contact the University Ethics Office at (309) 438-2339 or ethics@illinoisstate.edu.

Student Access and Accommodation Services

350 Fell Hall, (309) 438-5853

Website: StudentAccess.IllinoisState.edu

Email: AbleISU@IllinoisState.edu

Steps to receiving reasonable accommodations at Illinois State University. It is the student's responsibility to participate in the interactive process by: 1. self-identifying to Student Access and Accommodation Services (SAAS) as a person with a disability or medical/mental health condition, 2. completing a Request for Services form and 3. providing documentation of disability or medical/mental health condition. Upon acceptance of the documentation by the Documentation Review Committee, the case coordinator works with the student on a case-by-case basis to determine the impact of the disability or medical/mental health condition and the appropriate accommodation(s). SAAS offers a variety of accommodations to meet the needs of persons with disabilities or medical/mental health conditions. General examples of types of accommodations provided are exam accommodations, sign language interpreters, note takers, assistive technologies and materials in alternative formats.

Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics

Illinois State University is committed to the safety and welfare of the campus community. Campus safety and security at Illinois State University is a shared responsibility. The best protection against campus crime is an aware, informed, and alert campus community (students, faculty, staff, and visitors) who report crime and suspicious behavior in a timely manner and use reason and caution during their daily activities.

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics Act is a federal law that requires colleges and universities to disclose certain timely and annual information about campus crime and security policies. Information contained in the Annual Security Report includes criminal and fire statistics for the past three years of reports of incidents that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus building or property owned or controlled by the University, and on public property within or immediately adjacent to campus. The Report also contains information on other university policies and procedures related to campus security, emergency management, crime reporting, and other resources available to students. The Annual Security Report and Fire Safety Compliance Document is available on the Campus Safety and Security website at: Security.IllinoisState.edu. If you have any questions or would like to request a paper copy of the report, please contact the Illinois State University Police Department at (309) 438-8631.

The statements in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and Illinois State University. The course offerings and requirements of the University are continually under review and revision. This catalog presents those in effect at the time of publication. Courses listed in this publication are subject to revision without advance notice and are not necessarily offered each term or each year.

Information regarding changes will be available in the Offices of the University Registrar, the Provost, the colleges, major departments, and schools. It is especially important that each student note that it is his or her responsibility to be aware of current graduation requirements for a particular degree program.

Graduate Catalog Requirements

For a student who attends at least one term of each academic year, graduation requirements are specified in the Graduate Catalog for the year of first course enrollment in the degree program.

Since university programs are constantly evaluated and improved, a student may graduate under new degree requirements published the academic year he or she is graduating from the University. A student who changes to new Graduate Catalog requirements, however, must meet all the requirements including graduation requirements, in that catalog.

Course Prerequisites

Course prerequisites in effect at the time of publication are printed in this catalog. However, prerequisites may change over time and do not depend on catalog year. The registration system will enforce prerequisites in effect at time of registration.

Sequence: A subdivision of a program in which there are specific requirements. Sequences of the same program generally share a common core. Sequences are designated on university transcripts upon receipt of degree.

Concentration: A subdivision of a program without specific requirements that is provided for advisement only. Concentrations are not designated on university transcripts. All informal curricular recommendations made by departments and schools (such as emphases, tracks, areas of study, specializations, etc.) should be considered concentrations. Concentrations are advisory only; no approval process is required.

Graduate Certificate Program: Certificates are a series of courses designed to provide professional development and career advancement opportunities, or to enhance an individual’s skills or education. These certificates are not part of degree programs, although courses completed as part of a certificate could be used in meeting degree requirements, where appropriate. There are three types of certificates available at the graduate level:

Graduate Certificate—requires a minimum of 9 hours but no more than 17 hours beyond the bachelor’s degree.

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate—requires a minimum of 18 hours beyond the baccalaureate degree, but fewer hours than a master’s degree.

Post-Masters Certificate—requires a minimum of 24 semester hours of coursework beyond the master’s degree but fewer hours than a doctoral degree.

Terms Used in Course Descriptions

Course descriptions are given within each college. The following section explains how to read and use a course description, and the terminology used within course descriptions.

Also offered as: (cross-listed course) the specified courses are identical and are thus considered interchangeable in meeting all requirements. Credit can only be earned in one of the specified courses.

Consent of the instructor: The course instructor must give consent before a student may register for the course.

Formerly offered as: indicates a course previously offered under a different number or title. The course is interchangeable with the previous course number or title.

Materials charge optional: indicates an optional fee charge for course materials.

Multiple enrollments allowed: indicates that a course may be taken for credit more than once if different content is planned; there may be a maximum amount of credit specified for the course.

Not for credit if had: (course) means that content overlap exists between the specified courses and that students should not be able to count both toward graduation. Such courses are not, however, considered interchangeable in meeting all requirements.

Not for credit toward a graduate degree program: credit from this course may not be applied to the degree program requirements.

Variable credit courses: are those courses leading to differing number of credit hours. A student should plan with the advisor the number of hours to be sought in a variable credit course.

Course Offerings

Contract: Contract educational services, programs and courses are delivered through mutual contract to a business site for a specific cohort or business entity.

“Decimalized” Course: A course with different sub-topics but standard learning outcomes; for example HIS 104 may examine different regions. Campus Solutions replaces the decimal with the letter A, so HIS 104.01 appears as 104A01.

Distance Education: A formal education process in which the majority of the instruction occurs when student and instructor are not in the same location at the same time. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous.

General Courses: Courses with a common course description and identified with a university-wide common number may be offered in each academic department or school. Examples are 400 Independent Study, 393 Workshop, 499 Master’s Thesis, and 599 Doctoral Dissertation.

Independent Study: Intensive study in a special area of the student’s interest under the direction of a qualified member of the faculty. Each individual investigation is to culminate in a comprehensive written report and/or examination and/or artistic project.

Online courses: Makes use of Illinois State’s connection to the Internet and other electronic resources. These courses may utilize on-line materials, courseware, and discussion groups, and may be delivered in any asynchronous mode.

Professional Practice: Professional Practice consists of one or more credit-generating, academic/career related, salaried or non-salaried work experiences. Graduate Professional Practice courses are designated by the numbers 498, and 598.

Seminar: A regular meeting of students, under the guidance of a faculty member, in which each conducts research and exchanges information, problems, and results through informal lectures, reports, and discussion.

Temporary Course: Temporary courses are approved by the curricular committees for a time period not to exceed three years. Temporary courses often are used to experiment with a new curricular design, to take advantage of the skills of a faculty member who will be at the University for a limited period, or to respond to particular interests of students. Temporary courses are designated by the numbers 389, 489, and 589. Temporary courses may not be required within a major or sequence.

Topics Course: An organization of subject matter and related learning experiences composed of identifiable sub-divisions of topics. Each topic is of sufficient significance to be treated separately as a unit of instruction for an entire semester or term. The content of the course varies by semester.

Workshop: Intensive and applied work on special problems in one or more subject areas. Workshop opportunities are provided on special problems not covered in any regular university courses. Workshops are generally designated by the numbers 393, 429, and 493.

Course Information

The University operates on the semester plan. The credit value of all courses is stated in terms of semester hours. Ordinarily, a semester hour is assigned for a 50-minute class meeting per week for the semester; therefore, a course valued at three semester hours generally meets three periods weekly. In laboratory courses, at least two 50-minute periods per week are ordinarily required for each semester hour of credit.

In addition to its fall and spring semesters, the University provides a summer session with courses of varying lengths and a variety of short-term offerings.

Course Availability: Some courses listed in the catalog may not be available each year. Students should access My.IllinoisState.edu for class availability. Questions concerning scheduling of courses should be referred to the department chairperson or school director.

Course prerequisites in effect at the time of publication are printed in this catalog. However, prerequisites may change over time and do not depend on catalog year. The registration system will enforce prerequisites in effect at time of registration.

Course Numbering

Each course bears a distinguishing number for identification and indication of its academic level. Graduate courses are numbered 400 to 599. Students may receive graduate credit for 300-level courses listed in the Graduate Catalog. To receive graduate credit for 300-level courses, students must complete applicable graduate credit requirements provided in the course syllabus.

The numbering system for advanced courses is as follows:

300-399 Advanced undergraduate courses. Open to juniors, seniors, and sometimes graduate students. The only 300-level courses available for graduate credit are those that are listed in the Graduate Catalog.

400-499 Courses at this level are for graduate students. With approval from the instructor, the department chair/school director, and the Graduate School, advanced undergraduates may be permitted to enroll in 400-level courses for undergraduate credit only.

500-599 Courses limited to advanced graduate or doctoral students.

The Academic Senate is the major internal governance body of the University. The Senate acts in legislative and advisory roles with regard to University policies involving faculty and students, academic programs and planning, and University concerns. Based upon the concept of shared governance, the 62-member Senate's representatives consist of 31 faculty members, the composition of which is 29 tenure/tenure track faculty members, one non-tenure-track faculty member and one Faculty Associate from the Lab Schools, 21 students, including the Student Body President, one representative from the Civil Service Council and one from the Administrative Professional Council. Additionally, the ex-officio representatives are the President of the University, three Vice Presidents, one Associate Vice President, a representative from the Deans Council, a representative from the Chairs Council, and the Student Trustee.

The Graduate Council is the representative body of the graduate faculty. Council members deliberate and set policy on all matter of graduate education and research, and advise the Associate Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies. Each council member sits on one of four standing committees: admissions, curriculum, membership, or research. Members are elected by the graduate faculty or appointed by the Graduate School. Two graduate students serve on the Graduate Council. Selection criteria for members are articulated in Article IV of the by-laws.

TUITION AND FEES

Tuition and Fees

Tuition, fees, and on-campus housing charges are determined by action of the Board of Trustees on a yearly basis. Typically, tuition and fees are assessed at a per semester hour rate. Students enrolled for 9 semester hours or more in the fall and spring and 6 or more hours in the summer will be charged the current rate for health insurance. The Student Accounts website at StudentAccounts.IllinoisState.edu gives further information and lists specific dates.

Auditors

Students who take all courses as auditors without credit are charged at the current rate per semester hour for tuition and fees. A class taken under the audit option does not count toward a degree; it does not count toward full-time student status for financial aid and other purposes.

Resident/Non-Resident Status

An applicant or enrolled student is classified either as a resident of Illinois, a nonresident, or a foreign student. Residency for tuition purposes is different from residency for voting, taxing purposes, or residency requirements of on-campus doctoral programs.

A student must be a U.S. citizen or have been approved for U.S. Permanent Resident status in order to be considered as an Illinois resident. An individual's residency status is based on information from the admission application. A student who is not a resident of Illinois or one who is an international student pays the non-resident tuition fee as indicated. All other fees are the same for non-residents. A student under 18 years of age is considered a non-resident if the student's parents are not legal residents of Illinois. A student over 18 years of age is considered a non-resident if the student is not a legal resident of Illinois. A student who begins as a non-resident may later qualify for resident status. Guidelines for qualifying and special circumstances may be found on the University Registrar's website Registrar.IllinoisState.edu. Personnel within the Office of the University Registrar are responsible for determining residency.

Payment of Tuition and Fees

The University offers a registration installment plan for the payment of tuition and fees for each semester. For those selecting that option, a registration installment fee per semester will be assessed, with approximately one-fourth due in August, September, October, and November for the fall semester, and one-fourth due in January, February, March, and April for the spring semester and one-third due in May, June and July for the summer semester. The Student Accounts website StudentAccounts.IllinoisState.edu gives further information and lists specific dates.

StudentAccounts.IllinoisState.edu/Billing gives further information and lists specific dates.

Withdrawal and Reduction of Tuition and Fees

A registered student who officially withdraws from the University may receive a reduction of tuition and fees, including any advance deposit, according to the following schedule:

1. If withdrawal is prior to the first regularly scheduled class day, tuition and fee charges are reduced by 100 percent except for insurance.
2. If withdrawal is within the first fifteen calendar days starting with the first regularly scheduled class day, tuition and fees are reduced by 100 percent and a service charge will be added to the student account.
3. If withdrawal is after the fifteenth calendar day, please see the current year billing information brochure at: StudentAccounts.IllinoisState.edu for a current schedule.

The University may designate an abbreviated withdrawal policy for summer session, special courses, and short courses.

All notifications of withdrawal from the University must be in person with photo ID to the Registrar Service Center, 107 Moulton Hall, between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, or in writing and addressed to Office of the University Registrar, Illinois State University, Campus Box 2202, Normal, IL 61790-2202, or faxed to (309) 438-8652, or emailed from the student's Illinois State University email account to Registrar@IllinoisState.edu.

Student Health and Accident Insurance

The Student Health Insurance fee provides a health and accident insurance policy intended to meet the needs of students without other insurance or to provide up to 100 percent coverage for insured expenses by coordinating with a family policy. Insurance coverage is world-wide. The policy includes a $1,250 stop loss provision designed to provide catastrophic coverage while limiting out-of-pocket expenses, and a $50 deductible. This deductible is waived if other insurance is also in force. The policy is compliant with the Patient Protection and Affordability Care Act and meets the Federal requirement of having insurance. The schedule of benefits includes services for hospital inpatient and outpatient use including emergencies, surgical and anesthesia fees, physician's charges, consultation expenses, lab and radiology expenses, ambulance services, and prescription coverage. A complete schedule of benefits may be obtained from the Office of Student Insurance in the Student Services Building.

Student insurance coverage begins the Monday prior to the first day of regularly scheduled fall classes, the Thursday prior to the first day of regularly scheduled spring classes, and on the first day of classes of the first summer session. This coverage is terminated on the first day of classes of the next regularly scheduled term. Continuous year-round coverage is available if the student maintains university registration at nine or more hours during the first and second semesters and applies for summer coverage at the Student Health Insurance Office prior to the expiration of spring coverage. A summer insurance fee will be assessed in tuition and fees only by registration of six or more credit hours prior to the eighth calendar day of the first summer session. An insured student who graduates may purchase one additional term at the group rate by applying prior to graduation day. This policy contains no extension of benefits into a non-covered semester for any condition. Extension of coverage for existing conditions, such as maternity, is available through a continuation option, details of which can be obtained from the Student Insurance Office. Although dependent coverage is not included in the Student Plan, the Student Insurance Office can provide suggested alternatives for students needing dependent coverage.

It is strongly recommended that students remain enrolled in this plan even if other health insurance is present. A request to cancel this insurance plan is permitted during the first 15 calendar days of each semester (eight days during the summer session), for those students who prove they have comparable insurance coverage (insurance ID card or copy of policy) and complete the required petition in the Student Insurance Office. However, experience has often shown that the premium for the Illinois State plan is less than out-of-pocket bills that many have to pay because of higher deductibles, co-insurance, and out of network provisions in their own policy. Additionally, students sometimes lose coverage through their parent's plan because of age limitations, changes in dependent status, or changes in employment of parents. Thus, it can be more economical to remain enrolled in the Illinois State plan. The previous information is a summary of benefits and enrollment procedures. Persons desiring specific information about the Illinois State Student Health Insurance Plan should contact the Student Insurance Offices in the Student Services Building, or call (309) 438-2515.

Other Tuition/Fee Policies and Exceptions

Reduced Fees: Pursuant to guidelines established by the University, part or all of a student's tuition and fees may be reduced because of the student's death or disability, extreme hardship, or institutional error. A student may receive a reduction of all tuition and fees if the University declares him/her ineligible for enrolled status prior to the first day of regularly scheduled class.

Material Charges: Material charges listed under course offerings in the Graduate Catalog and My.IllinoisState.edu registration system are automatically charged to the student's account. A student may supply his or her own materials and request the instructor, in writing, to reduce the materials charge.

FUNDING OPTIONS

Financial Aid

Each year, many Illinois State graduate students receive financial assistance in the form of graduate assistantships; non-assistantship employment; tuition waivers; scholarships, fellowships, grants, and awards; and loans. Financial Aid is coordinated through the Financial Aid Office. You may access information at FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu. Information from the website includes:

- General information about the Illinois State Financial Aid Office, office hours, phone number and location; information concerning the application process, cost of attendance and programs available to students;
- A link to FAFSA on the Web, which allows you to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid electronically;
- A link to Illinois State's My.IllinoisState.edu portal so that once you have a login and password you can check the status and progress of your aid application after being admitted to Illinois State. My.IllinoisState.edu also allows you to review your financial aid awards and verify and/or update your address information on file with the Office of the University Registrar.

Using the email address FinancialAid@IllinoisState.edu is another method of contacting the Financial Aid Office. You will receive a response to your question within two business days.

General Financial Aid Requirements

To qualify for federal or state financial aid programs, you must:

1. be a United States citizen or have resident alien status;
2. complete and submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the federal processor either on paper or on line;
3. be enrolled for a minimum of 6 hours fall/spring, 5 hours summer (Students not pursuing a degree or unclassified students are not eligible for financial aid, including loans.); not be in default on a Perkins Loan or any federally guaranteed loan;
4. not owe a repayment to a federal grant program;
5. make satisfactory progress toward a degree as defined by Illinois State University (See Satisfactory Academic Progress); and
6. be registered with Selective Service, if you are a male at least 18 years of age, born after 1959, and not currently an active member of the U.S. Armed Forces.

NOTE: A student may not receive federal or state financial aid from more than one institution at the same time.

Enrollment Changes and Financial Aid Eligibility

Reduction in Hours: Reducing your credit hours, withdraw from classes or failure to earn credit has implications for your aid eligibility for the current semester and future terms. These standards are posted on the Financial Aid website FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu.

Confidentiality and the Release of Information

The Financial Aid Office will release information about the financial status of a student to those parties within the University if it is related to your attendance at Illinois State. Inquiries from off-campus agencies and/or landlords will be answered by Financial Aid Office staff only if you have given consent in writing to the Financial Aid Office.

To protect the confidentiality of your records, the Financial Aid Office will require proper identification from the requesting party before releasing any of your information. A documentation notice will also be placed in your financial aid file.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

All students who receive federal and state financial aid must meet federal and institutional standards for academic progress in order to establish and retain aid eligibility. Students receiving athletic or other university administered awards must also meet the satisfactory academic progress standards that have been established by the awarding entity.

Satisfactory academic progress for federal and state financial aid programs is based on three measures: cumulative grade-point average, completion rate based on credit hours completed compared to attempted, and a maximum time frame for degree completion. The University's standards for each of these three measures, and when these standards are reviewed, are described on the website FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu.

Sources of Support

Graduate students are supported at Illinois State University through graduate assistantships; non-assistantship employment; tuition waivers; scholarships, fellowships, grants, and awards; and loans.

Graduate Assistantships

The main source of support for graduate students is graduate assistantships. Graduate assistantships are provided as financial support for selected graduate students. They are intended to facilitate progress towards a graduate degree and are governed by the Graduate Assistant Handbook. For more detailed information on eligibility, requirements, and specific information please refer to the Graduate Assistant Handbook at: HR.IllinoisState.edu/Student/Graduate/.

Applying for a Graduate Assistantship: Information for applying for graduate assistantships is available on the website: HR.IllinoisState.edu/Student/Graduate/

Non-assistantship Employment

On- and off-campus part-time job openings are accessible through the website at FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu/jobs. From this website, you can search for the type of job you would like by selecting a classification. Classifications include Graduate Assistantships, off-campus employment, and on-campus (student) employment. If you are interested in working on campus, you may also contact individual University offices directly to inquire about employment opportunities.

Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986: It is the policy of Illinois State University to comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. Therefore, all employees must furnish documentation prior to employment to establish both their employment authorization and identity. All employment is contingent upon a review and verification of such documents.

Tuition Waivers

Graduate Tuition Waivers: Are awarded on a competitive basis by departments and schools offering graduate programs and by the Office of International Studies to students who show promise for success and who have not received a fellowship or other award funding tuition costs. Students who are interested in a tuition waiver should complete an application provided by the department or school offering the degree program in which they wish to enroll. Applications are also on-line at Grad.IllinoisState.edu. International students may apply to either their department or school or the Office of International Studies.

Tuition waivers are also awarded to students as part of a graduate assistantship contract. The application is available on at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/funding.

Diversity Tuition Waivers: In an effort to provide support to persons from traditionally underrepresented groups who have been admitted to an Illinois State University graduate degree program, the Graduate School is able to offer a limited number of Diversity Tuition Waivers to U.S. citizens from traditionally underrepresented groups. Such groups may be based on but are not limited to race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military experience, low socioeconomic status, experience as a first generation college student, and/or limited English proficiency. Awards are not based solely on membership in one or more traditionally underrepresented groups, but rather on a holistic evaluation that includes students' articulation of how their experience and perspective as a member of an underrepresented group has resulted in and/or is expected to result in unique contributions to their respective graduate program, academic discipline, and overall campus community. Waivers cover tuition only (students must still pay fees). They are awarded subject to available funds and may be received in addition to most other types of financial assistance. Please note, however, that those who receive a graduate assistantship will forfeit the award of the Diversity waiver as graduate assistantships include a tuition waiver. Funds are limited, and applications are for one semester at a time. Students must submit a new application for each semester. Submit applications by priority dates for the best chance at funding: fall-July 1, spring-October 1, summer-March 1. The application and more information is available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/funding.

Scholarships, Fellowships, Grants and Awards

Grants and scholarships are available on a limited basis through institutional and private sources for graduate students. Select grants and scholarships are listed below with more information on the Graduate School website: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/funding/fellowships.

Ada Belle Clark Welsh Scholarship: For women in the field of liberal arts and humanities, including study for teacher preparation or improvement. This scholarship is awarded during the spring semester; the application deadline is March 15.

Lela Winegarner Scholarship for International Students: For international students pursuing careers of service to their country. This scholarship is awarded during the fall semester; the application deadline is September 15.

Ora Bretall Scholarship: For students whose thesis/dissertation proposal deals with educational theory. Awarded during the fall and spring semesters; the application deadlines are September 15 and March 15.

Fulbright Scholarships: Designed to be given to graduating seniors, graduate students, and developing professionals and artists who plan to conduct career-launching study and research abroad.

McNair Book Scholarships: Book scholarships are available for incoming or continuing Ronald E. McNair Post-baccalaureate Achievement Program Scholars.

Donald F. McHenry Fellowship: For U.S. citizens of African, Asian, Hispanic or Native American ethnicity. Awarded during the spring semester; the application deadline is March 15.

Illinois State University Foundation Fellowship: For persons admitted to a degree program but who have not begun coursework. This fellowship is awarded during the spring semester; the application deadline is March 15.

Student Symposium Grant: Partial reimbursement of expenses to carry out a project of scholarship, research and creative endeavor for the Symposium or to present a symposium project at a refereed conference or juried exhibition in the student's field, either before or after Symposium participation. Grant guidelines and the application form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Funding/Grants.

Thesis and Dissertation Awards: The James L. Fisher Outstanding Thesis Award and the Clarence W. Sorensen Distinguished Dissertation Award provide recognition for completed theses and dissertations judged to be of the highest quality in university-wide competitions. A monetary award accompanies this distinction. Nominations are put forward by academic departments and schools. More information is available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics.

Loans

As a participant in this program, Illinois State receives loan funds directly from the U.S. Department of Education. Illinois State disburses loan proceeds and applies the funds directly to a student's university charges. If the total financial aid exceeds charges, a student will receive a refund.

Graduate students may borrow up to $20,500 per academic year. The actual amount you can borrow will depend on your total cost of attendance minus any other financial aid that you are receiving including tuition waivers.

Interest on graduate loans begins once the funds have been disbursed. This interest can be deferred while you are attending school at least half-time, but any unpaid interest will be added to the principal (capitalize) once you start repayment. The aggregate loan limit (total of all loans received as a graduate and an undergraduate student, but excluding a Perkins Loan) is $138,500.

Graduate Visiting Students: If you are classified as a graduate visiting student and need at least six undergraduate credits as prerequisites to enter a graduate program, you can submit an Appeal Form to the Financial Aid Office. This appeal is not granted automatically. If your appeal is granted, you will only be eligible for a subsidized and/or unsubsidized loan, subject to the undergraduate loan maximum and depending on your FAFSA data. Your appeal is granted for up to one, continuous 12-month period of enrollment. The appeal form can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office.

Loan Counseling: All first-time borrowers at Illinois State are required to attend entrance loan counseling before your loan proceeds are released to Student Accounts. Review the loan counseling information at FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu/Loans.

After your loan is processed, you will receive your Award Notice and information about completing an Electronic Promissory Note (EMPN) if you have not already done so. Read the note carefully. The interest rate for this loan is currently locked at 5.31% (July 1, 2016).

Check Distribution: The Student Accounts Office processes refunds for aid in excess of amounts owed the University throughout the academic year. Students should be prepared to buy books and have "start up" funds at the beginning of each semester.

Students should keep their local and permanent address information current. Financial aid refund checks will be mailed to the local address. Once a student receives the login and password, they can update their address on the My.IllinoisState.edu portal which can be accessed from the Financial Aid Office website FinancialAid.IllinoisState.edu. Numerous university offices will use this address to contact students. Students are encouraged to sign-up for direct deposit of refunds through My.IllinoisState.edu.

Exit Information: Before a student graduates, or if their enrollment drops below six hours per semester, they will be sent information concerning exit loan counseling, which outlines loan repayment, consolidation, and deferment options. A student will begin loan repayment six months after they graduate or drop below half-time status (six hours per semester).

Resolution Regarding Graduate Scholars, Fellows, Trainees, and Assistants

In 1965, the Council of Graduate Schools (CGS) approved the following resolution regarding offers of financial assistance such as scholarships and tuition waivers. The Graduate School endorses this resolution. Questions regarding the application of this resolution should be addressed to the Graduate School.

The acceptance of an offer of financial support (such as a graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by a prospective or enrolled graduate student completes an agreement that both student and Graduate School expect to honor. In that context, the conditions affecting such offers and their acceptance must be defined carefully and understood by all parties.

Students are under no obligation to respond to offers of financial support prior to April 15; earlier deadlines for acceptance of such offers violate the intent of this Resolution. In those instances in which a student accepts an offer before April 15, and subsequently desires to withdraw that acceptance, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer. It is further agreed by the institutions and organization subscribing to the above Resolution that a copy of this Resolution should accompany every scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, and assistantship offer.

Graduate Licensure Programs

Licensure for school administrators, school service personnel, and teachers may only be awarded in Illinois by completing an approved program and meeting other specific Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) requirements. Illinois State University offers the following ISBE approved graduate licensure programs:

Administrative and School Service Personnel Licensure Programs: Administrative Programs: Principalship, Superintendent, Chief School Business Official, and Director of Special Education. School Service Personnel Certificate Programs: Speech Pathology and Audiology, School Psychology, and School Social Worker.

Initial and Advanced Teacher Licensure Programs: Special Education endorsements and subsequent licensure in Learning Behavior Specialist I, Learning Behavior Specialist II licensure in the areas of Curriculum Adaptation, Multiple Disabilities, Behavior Intervention, Technology and Transition and Reading Specialist licensure.

Individual program requirements may be obtained by either referring to the specific program described elsewhere in this catalog or by contacting the appropriate departmental or school advisor.

Licensure Information: Individuals seeking licensure through Illinois State graduate level programs must file an "Intent for Licensure" with the Office of Clinical Experiences and Licensure Processes (CELP), located in the Cecilia J. Lauby Teacher Education Center, 56 DeGarmo Hall. This should be done early in the program. The CELP Office will evaluate credentials for meeting program requirements, inform students of deficiencies, notify the Illinois State Board of Education when a student has successfully completed an Illinois State University graduate entitlement program, and inform the program completer on licensure application procedures.

All applicants for licensure must pass an examination in the area of specialization which has been developed and administered by the State of Illinois. An applicant should contact their advisor to determine when this examination needs to be taken. Individuals that have not passed the Basic Skills test, TAP (Test of Academic Proficiency), or ISBE approved equivalent test for previous licensure, will be required to do so for full admission into a graduate licensure program. Additional testing may be required for certain licensure areas. For further information see the licensure specialist in the Cecilia J. Lauby Teacher Education Center, 56 DeGarmo Hall.

Students seeking an initial teaching licensure in the areas of Early Childhood, Elementary Education, Junior High/Middle School Education, Secondary 6-12, or the Special K-12 areas of Art, Music, Foreign Languages, Business, Special Education and Physical Education can earn that licensure only through undergraduate course work. See the Undergraduate Catalog section, University-Wide Teacher Education Programs, for an explanation of the requirements of these programs. Students who have already received a bachelor's degree in a non-teaching area can become licensed by completing the necessary undergraduate requirements, usually through enrolling in a second bachelor's degree program. For additional information see the Cecilia J. Lauby Teacher Education Center website Education.IllinoisState.edu/teacher_education/licensures.

Students wishing to appeal decisions which affect their admission to or dismissal from a professional educator program or which have a direct bearing on their being recommended for licensure, should contact the Office of Clinical Experiences and Licensure Processes, 56 DeGarmo Hall. The guidelines for submitting appeals may be found on the following website: Education.IllinoisState.edu/teacher_education.

Degrees, Non-Degree Graduate Level Certificates, and Visiting Students

Specific admission requirements for the master's, specialist, M.F.A., Ph.D., Ed.D., Au.D., and non-degree graduate certificates are provided on the Graduate School website at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/academics.

Graduate Degrees: A student may be admitted as either a degree seeking student or a non-degree seeking student. A degree-seeking student is one who has been formally admitted to a program of study leading to a degree. Illinois State University offers programs of study leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Science in Chemistry Education, Master in Social Work, Master of Professional Accountancy, Master of Business Administration, Master of Science in Education, Master of Music, Master of Music Education, Master of Science in Education, Master of Science in Nursing, Specialist in School Psychology, Master of Fine Arts, Doctor of Nursing Practice, Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Education, and Doctor of Audiology. All other students are classified as non-degree seeking students.

The only students eligible to take courses for credit at the terminal degree level (Ed.D., M.F.A., Ph.D., Au.D.) are those admitted to a degree program.

Non-Degree Graduate-Level Certificates: A non-degree graduate certificate student is one who has been formally admitted by a department or school to a specific course of study leading to a graduate level certificate. Graduate-level certificates are graduate courses of study approved by an academic unit and designed to provide professional development and career advancement opportunities, to broaden career options, or to enhance an individual's skills or education as part of the process of life-long learning. These certificates are not part of any degree program, although courses completed as part of a certificate curriculum could be used in meeting degree requirements, where appropriate.

There are three types of non-degree graduate certificates.

1. Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 9 but no more than 17 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the bachelor's degree.
2. Post-Baccalaureate Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the baccalaureate degree, but fewer hours than a master's degree.
3. Post-Master's Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 24 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the master's degree, but fewer hours than a doctoral degree.

Visiting Student: A visiting student is one who does not seek a degree at Illinois State or has not been officially admitted to a graduate degree program. The application deadline is the Friday before the beginning of each semester. If a department wishes to make an exception to this deadline for a student, the department should contact the Office of Admissions. For general information about visiting student status and advisors, visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/admission.

Admission to Master's Degree Programs

An applicant for a program leading to the master's degree must have a bachelor's degree from a four-year college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association, or its equivalent, as determined by the Graduate School. Applicants are considered on the basis of their academic record and other performance requirements stipulated by the individual department or school. These may include examinations or standardized tests, interviews, auditions, examples of work, and letters of recommendation. To be admitted to a degree program, a student must have at least a 2.8 grade point average, on a scale in which A equals 4, for the last 60 hours of undergraduate work, and the approval of an academic department or school. In specific cases a department or school may petition the Graduate School for permission to use undergraduate courses taken while the student is classified as a graduate student (either as a visiting student or a degree student in another graduate program) in calculating the GPA for the last 60 undergraduate hours. Specific admission requirements are described under departmental and school listings in this catalog.

Admissions Status

Conditional Admittance: A student whose application for a degree program is incomplete because not all required supporting material has been received in the Office of Admissions may be admitted as a conditional student. Conditional admission will not be granted in the absence of scores from the GRE general test or the GMAT, as applicable. The conditional student may be granted a permit to register for one semester only, pending a decision on his/her application for admission. A conditional student is not a visiting student. If the student with conditional status is subsequently unconditionally admitted to the Graduate School, there is no guarantee that the courses taken before unconditional admission will be counted toward a degree. Acceptance of previous courses will depend upon the recommendation of the advisor and the approval of the Graduate School. The degree-seeking applicant who enrolls as a conditional degree student accepts the risk of termination from the program if the conditional status is not cleared in the student's first semester.

Probationary Admission: A student who does not meet the minimum grade point requirement but whose academic record and entrance examination scores give promise of high performance may be admitted as a probationary degree student. This admission must be based upon other documentation that the department or school deems important. Examples include exceptional scores on standard or additional examinations, interviews, letters of recommendation, exceptional grades in previous graduate work, samples of original work and/or demonstrated performance ability. Such recommendations for admission will be forwarded to the Graduate School for approval only if the student does not meet the minimum grade point average of 2.8 or not lower than 2.2 in the last 60 semester hours of undergraduate work. A student who meets the Graduate School established minimums but not the department's or school's minimum admission requirements may be admitted by the department or school on a probationary basis without approval from the Graduate School. Such admission may be restricted to a trial period of one semester. Any special restrictions of this type will be noted on the admission form along with other requirements for continued graduate study. These may include the successful completion of specific courses or projects, the obtaining of a minimum specified grade point average, and/or other requirements. If these requirements are not met, the student may be dismissed from the program at the end of one semester upon the recommendation of the department or school and approval of the Graduate School.

Appeal of Denial of Admission to a Graduate Program: Graduate admissions to Illinois State are decentralized; as long as the student meets university minimum requirements, the admission decision rests with the specific academic program to which the student has applied. Students who have questions about a denial of admission should begin by speaking to the graduate coordinator of the program, who will tell them why the admission was denied (e.g., the student's grades or test scores fell below program admission requirements, there were not enough spaces for all applicants and other applicants were more qualified, or there was not a good fit between the student's educational goals and the opportunities available in the graduate program).

Students who wish to appeal a denial of admission after discussion with the program's graduate coordinator should make a written request to the chair or director of the department or school that houses the program. The chair/director will review the decision and notify the student of the outcome of the review. The final opportunity for substantive review of the admissions decision is a written appeal to the dean of the college that houses the program. The dean or designee will review the decision and inform the student, the graduate coordinator, and the program's department chair or school director of the outcome of the review.

Because the admissions decision rests with the academic unit, the Graduate School conducts only a procedural review; it does not undertake a reconsideration of the student's application materials. Students who wish to request that procedural review should make a written request to the Director of Graduate Studies. The request must include a copy of the dean's letter to the student. The Graduate Admissions Committee will examine only whether the program followed established guidelines and procedures when it reached the decision to deny admission. The Committee will report its findings to the student, the program's graduate coordinator, the department chair or school director, the dean of the college, and the Director of Graduate Studies.

Students who believe that a denial of admission was discriminatory should contact the Office of Equal Opportunity, Ethics, and Access.

Deficiencies: When an applicant has been accepted, the department or school advisor will indicate any courses that may be required to remove undergraduate deficiencies. The department or school also may specify certain graduate courses which will be required in addition to those listed in the catalog and will designate which, if any, of these courses may be used in meeting requirements for the degree.

Immunization/Medical Requirements: All students admitted to Illinois State University are required, 77 Illinois Adm. Code 694, to provide proof of immunity for tetanus, diphtheria, meningitis, measles, mumps and rubella (MMR). Documentation of immunity must be complete and on file in the Student Health Services by July 1 (incoming summer students), August 1 (incoming fall students) and January 10 (incoming spring students).

Proof of immunity must include:

- Two Measles, Mumps, and Rubella (MMR) vaccines after the first birthday, for students born after 1/1/1957,
- A combination of 3 shots for DTP/Dtap/Td/ or Tdap. One must be a Tdap. One must be within the last ten years,
- One Meningococcal conjugate vaccine after the age of 16 for new students under the age of 22. Meningitis B and menomune do not meet this requirement.

You should begin to gather the records from your physician or high school that verifies the dates that you received these vaccinations. All immunization dates must be signed and certified by a physician or public health official.

Please note, that a physical examination is not required. International students are required by University regulations to have a TB screening test within ten days of their arrival on campus. The Student Health Services strongly recommends that all students have immunization against Hepatitis B (a series of three injections).

Information and further instructions for meeting the above requirements will be provided via future communication from the Student Health Services for all incoming students. The Student Health Services recommends completion of the immunization information as soon as possible. Students not in compliance with the immunization requirements by the 10th class day of the entering semester will have subsequent semester registrations blocked and be assessed an administrative non-compliance fee. Further information can be obtained by calling the Student Health Services Health Information Management department by phone at (309) 438-7559 or by visiting the Student Health website StudentHealthServices.IllinoisState.edu

Domestic Student Admissions Process

Eligibility: A student who has completed work for a bachelor's degree or its equivalent, or who will do so within one academic year at a college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association, may apply for admission to the University as a graduate student. Only those who have received a bachelor's degree and have been admitted to the University will be permitted to register for graduate coursework. However, exceptions may be made for undergraduate seniors at Illinois State to begin graduate work if they meet the conditions of the Seniors Taking Graduate Courses for Graduate Credit Policy. See the section on Degree and Certificate Completion requirements.

Required Application Materials: Visit the Graduate School website, Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/ for detailed admission information for each graduate program. Each prospective student who wishes to enroll in courses for graduate credit is required to submit the following:

1. Application Form: Complete the application form at IllinoisState.edu/Apply.
2. Transcripts: An official transcript from each college or university other than Illinois State University at which graduate, undergraduate, or non-degree credit was earned.
3. Application Fee: A nonrefundable application fee must be submitted with the application. Former Illinois State University graduate students applying for readmission are exempt from the fee. Under certain circumstances, applicants may be eligible for a waiver of the application fee; additional information about fee waivers may be obtained from the Admissions Office. The application fee is waived for McNair Scholars and Project1000 applicants. McNair Scholars and Project 1000 applicants should contact the Office of Admissions for waiver instructions.
4. A Criminal Activity and Disciplinary Disclosure: Illinois State University is committed to maintaining a safe and positive environment for all members of the University community. Therefore, applicants will be required to disclose information regarding criminal background. In addition, applicants must also report misconduct that resulted in disciplinary separation from a previous school and/or university. These cases will be reviewed by the University prior to an admission decision being made. Such disclosure does not automatically disqualify an applicant. For additional information, please contact the Office of Admissions.

Supplemental Application Materials: Individual departments or schools may require additional application materials. Letters of recommendation addressing specific items are required from most programs. The process for letters of recommendation is detailed on the individual program websites.

The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) is required for application to most master's degree programs and nearly all doctoral programs. The Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) is required for application to the College of Business programs. Students should contact their department or school for individual requirements.

Some departments and schools require such things as portfolios, writing samples, and a goal statement, among others. See the specific department for details.

Testing Arrangements: Arrangements for taking the GRE can be made with Educational Testing Service (ETS) at www.ets.org or by calling GRE at 1-888-473-7267. Official GRE score reports must come directly from ETS. The institution code to forward scores to Illinois State University is 1319.

Arrangements for taking the GMAT can be made with Graduate Management Admission Test at www.mba.com or by calling 1-800-717-GMAT. Official GMAT score reports must come directly from Pearson VUE.

Application Deadlines: Many graduate programs have specific due dates for applications and required documents and information. Also note, some programs only offer a fall admission option. For deadline information for each graduate program, visit the Graduate School website at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics. For programs that do not have deadline dates, it is advised that prospective students have an application and all required documents and information submitted by May 1 for summer or fall entry and October 15 for spring entry. Many graduate programs have earlier deadlines than are listed here. Check with the department or school of the intended program to see if there is an earlier deadline.

Readmission of Former Students: Graduate students who wish to return to the University after a lapse in registration of one calendar year or more should apply for readmission at IllinoisState.edu/Apply. Students who are NOT in good academic standing and who have NOT maintained continuous enrollment (excluding summer terms), and who wish to return to the University are required to apply for readmission. Those students with less than a one calendar year lapse may register for classes without completing a readmission application. Students whose time limit for completion of degree has expired must submit a Request to Extend Time Form to the Graduate School at the time of application. The form may be obtained from the Graduate School.

Graduate students who were previously admitted but never registered may contact the Admissions Office and request their original application be updated. After a period of three terms, however, a new application is required. Students may request a new degree program on their readmission application, however they must also submit all necessary required documents and information to be considered for the new degree program.

International Student Admissions Process

Eligibility: Any individual who currently holds a non-immigrant visa of any type or is seeking admission to the University under a non-immigrant visa of any type is considered to be an international student. An international student holding the equivalent of, or completing, a U.S. baccalaureate degree from a recognized international post-secondary college or university, as determined by the Graduate School, may apply for admission.

English Proficiency Requirements for Admission to Illinois State University

Students can prove English proficiency in a number of ways:

1. Tests
 - a.) If a specific department requests a higher score for consideration into their program(s), we require that designated score.
 - b.) If a specific department request all applications be submitted for review, regardless of English proficiency test scores, we honor the request and add a note that these applications will need to be submitted to the graduate school for an exception.
 - c.) TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) The minimum TOEFL score required for international graduate admission is 79 (Internet-based testing), or 550 (paper-based).
 - d.) IELTS (International English Language Testing System) The minimum IELTS score is a 6.5 band.
2. Attending U.S. institutions

A student is eligible to have a language test waived if they attended a U.S. school and have met the following criteria:

 - Has graduated or will be graduating from an accredited U.S. institution or has resided in the U.S. for at least 1 year at the time of admission.
3. Earning a degree from a U.S. Institution

If a student has earned a degree from an accredited U.S. school, TOEFL/IELTS scores are waived if the student has not left the United States for at least one year or more at the time of admission.
4. English as a Native Language

Students whose country of origin's only official language is English are exempt from having to prove English proficiency. Refer to the CIA World Factbook.
5. English as the Medium for Instruction

If a student has attended a school whose language of instruction is English, ISU does not require test scores to prove English proficiency. To demonstrate this, it should be stated explicitly on the transcript or a submitted letter from the school official.

Required Application Materials: Visit the Graduate School website, Grad.IllinoisState.edu/academics, for detailed admission information for each graduate program. Each prospective student who wishes to enroll in courses for graduate credit is required to submit the following:

1. Application Form: Complete the application form at IllinoisState.edu/Apply.
2. Official academic records (one in English and one in the native language), verified with fresh seals and signatures, sent directly from each college or university attended.
3. Application Fee: A nonrefundable application fee must be submitted with the application. Former Illinois State University graduate students applying for readmission -are exempt from the fee.
4. Official TOEFL score, sent directly from Educational Testing Services (ETS), or official test score of the International English Language Testing Systems (IELTS) sent directly from the testing center that administered the test. The institution code to forward scores to Illinois State University is 1319.
5. Other required tests such as the GRE if required by the department.
6. Financial Documentation: Although not required for admission, proof of finances must be received for students seeking F-1 (student) status, before any immigration paperwork (I-20) can be issued. The Declaration of Finances must show assured support for the first year. Bank certification is required for the first year's funds. If funds are from a source other than the applicant, the sponsor must sign the form and verify the amount of financial support pledged. For students who plan to attend on a visa status other than F-1 student status, proof of that status is required.
7. Passport: A copy of the student's current passport, if available, is requested to ensure that the spelling of all names is consistent.
8. Criminal Activity and Disciplinary Disclosure: Illinois State University is committed to maintaining a safe and positive environment for all members of the University community. Therefore, applicants will be required to disclose information regarding criminal background. In addition, applicants must also report misconduct that resulted in disciplinary separation from a previous school/university. These cases will be reviewed by the University prior to an admission decision being made. Such disclosure does not automatically disqualify an applicant. For additional information, please contact the Office of Admissions.

For TOEFL and IELTS tests, the test bulletin of information and registration forms are usually available at America embassies and consulates, offices of the United States Information Agency, or online at www.ets.org or www.ielts.org.

Application Deadlines: Many graduate programs have specific due dates for applications and required documents and information. Also note, some programs only offer a fall admission option. For deadline information, visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics. For programs that do not have deadline dates, general deadlines for international student applications are May 1 for the fall (August) term, October 15 for the spring (January) term, and April 1 for the summer (May/June) term.

Readmission of Former Students: Graduate students who wish to return to the University after a lapse in registration of one calendar year or more should apply for readmission at IllinoisState.edu/apply. Students who are NOT in good academic standing and who have NOT maintained continuous enrollment (excluding summer terms), and who wish to return to the University are required to apply for readmission. Those students with less than a one calendar year lapse may register for classes without completing a readmission application. (Note: International students must contact International Admissions with any lapse in attendance.)

Students whose time limit for completion of degree has expired must submit a Request to Extend Time Form to the Graduate School at the time of application. The form may be obtained from the Graduate School.

Graduate students who were previously admitted but never registered may contact the Admissions Office and request their original application be updated. After a period of three terms, however, a new application is required. Students may request a new degree program on their readmission application, however they must also submit all necessary required documents and information to be considered for the new degree program.

Non-degree Graduate-level Certificate Admissions Process

Admissions Procedure:

1. Complete an application and pay the application fee.
2. Submit all official college transcripts showing that a degree has been earned from an accredited institution.
3. Contact the appropriate graduate program coordinator to evaluate preparedness for coursework within the specific certificate course of study.

Subsequent Admission to a Degree Program

Individuals in a graduate-level certificate program who subsequently wish to apply to a degree program will go through the usual admissions process for a master's degree, using the usual documentation (transcripts, standardized scores, etc.).

Visiting Student

A visiting student refers to an individual who is taking classes without having been admitted to any degree program or to any program of study leading to a certificate.

A visiting student may enroll without submitting official transcripts to the Office of Admissions but is required to sign a disclaimer statement upon admission asserting she/he has met the requirements for enrollment. The disclaimer statement reads as follows:

I certify that I have or will have a baccalaureate degree from a college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association prior to my attendance at Illinois State. I understand that my enrollment in this graduate level does not constitute admission to a degree program at Illinois State University. I recognize that there is no guarantee that credits earned from my enrollment as a Visiting Student will be applicable to a degree at Illinois State. All graduate courses taken as a Visiting Student will be computed into my graduate grade point average. I am aware that admission as a graduate visiting student does not guarantee availability of desired classes, as courses in some programs are limited only to students admitted into those programs. Furthermore, I understand that I, as a non-degree seeking student, may not be eligible for Financial Aid.

A visiting student may register for courses which he or she has the prerequisites AND for which the department or school offering that program has approved enrollment of visiting students. Many departments and schools do not permit visiting student enrollment; others restrict access to certain courses. Students should check to see whether or not they can take the class(es) they desire before submitting the visiting student application.

If a visiting student decides to pursue a degree at Illinois State, he or she may petition that previous courses taken may be accepted in meeting requirements for a degree. If the petition is recommended by the advisor and approved by the Graduate School, a limited number of courses may be counted toward a degree. Normally, petitions are not approved for more than 12 hours, but under special circumstances up to one-half of the hours of a master's degree program may be approved to be counted toward a degree.

Good Standing

A student must remain in good standing during the entire enrollment in graduate studies at the University. Good standing includes maintaining a minimum 3.0 cumulative graduate GPA, satisfying any program-specific requirements for good standing, and making satisfactory progress to degree. Students who fail to meet this requirement will either be dismissed from graduate studies or placed on academic probation by the Graduate School.

Probation

A student may be placed on probation for a time period not to exceed 9 credit hours. A student who fails to return to good standing by the end of this recommended time will be dismissed from graduate studies. A student must be in academic good standing to be admitted to candidacy for a degree to graduate.

Course Registration

Help with registration may be obtained at the University Registrar website Registrar.IllinoisState.edu or the Registrar Service Center, in 107 Moulton Hall, or by calling (309) 438-2188. For office hours, visit the University Registrar website Registrar.IllinoisState.edu. Registration may be accomplished during the advance registration period or the additional registration periods prior to the start of the semester.

Academic Load

Students are considered full time if they register for 9 or more hours during the fall and spring semesters and 6 or more hours in the summer session. A student may register for no more than 15 hours in the fall and spring semester. In the 12-week summer session the maximum load is 12 semester hours. Fees for Student Health Insurance are automatically assessed for full-time students only. Student fees are assessed on a per hour basis. For graduate students in their final semester or on a 9-12 month internship, who have completed all coursework, and whose culminating experiences include thesis/dissertation or internships related to certification/accreditation, a full-time academic load would consist of at least one hour of thesis/dissertation or professional practice credit. Fees for Student Health Insurance will not automatically be assessed for these students. Students who desire the "1 credit hour equals full time" designation must be approved for that designation by their graduate coordinator, who will contact the Graduate School for registration.

If a student holds an assistantship the academic class load is 9 hours in the fall and spring semesters. A graduate assistant in their last semester of graduate studies who needs fewer than 9 hours to complete the degree must have a Graduate Assistant Course Load Waiver Request approved before the beginning of the last semester by his or her graduate advisor and by the Graduate School. Graduate assistants taking more than 12 hours must have the approval of their graduate advisor.

Subject to departmental or school approval, master's students writing theses who have completed all of their coursework and the 4-6 hours of Thesis (499) may either register for:

- one or more hours of Thesis (499), depending on the student's need to be considered a full time student or to make up for continuous registration deficiencies; or
- 499A90 if the student is in the last semester of the program. 499A90 may be taken one time and is considered full time.

Subject to departmental/school approval, doctoral candidates who have completed all of their coursework and the 15 hours of Doctoral Research (599) may either register for:

- one or more hours of Doctoral Research (599), depending on the student's need to be considered a full time student or to make up for continuous registration deficiencies; or
- 599A90 if the student is in the last semester of the program. 599A90 may be taken one time and is considered full time.

Note: Graduate assistants registering for fewer than 9 hours in fall or spring, or fewer than 6 hours in summer, will not have the insurance fee automatically assessed. Those graduate assistants must apply for the insurance through their student account on My.IllinoisState.edu before the fifteenth calendar day of each semester and the eighth calendar day of the summer session to pay premiums or within 15 days of the assistantship start date.

To be eligible to purchase university insurance a student will need to register for regular Master's Thesis (499) or Doctoral Research (599) hours.

Auditing Privileges

A student may register as an auditor in a class or classes if facilities are available. A class taken under the audit option does not count toward a degree; it does not count toward full-time student status for financial aid and other purposes, nor does it count toward total hours enrolled in determining registration priority. Students auditing a class will be charged all applicable tuition and fees. An auditor is expected to attend regularly. A student may register as an auditor in a class or classes if space is available. To audit, a student must obtain a Request for Auditor registration form from the Registrar Service Center or download it at Registrar.IllinoisState.edu, request the instructor sign it and return the signed form to the Registrar Service Center.

Grading System

Instructors assign a letter grade in each course for which the student is registered and are responsible for correcting any error in grading. The grade point equivalents are 4 for A, 3 for B, 2 for C, 1 for D, and 0 for F. Courses completed at this University with grades below C will not count toward a graduate degree or certificate, but all grades of D and F in graduate courses at this University will be included in computing the cumulative grade point average. (See Repetition of Course Requirements section below.) Graduate courses are not available on Passing/Not Passing (P/NP). Credit/No Credit (CR/NC) is provided only where approval through the curricular process has been obtained.

Incomplete Grades

An incomplete (I) will be assigned to a student who is doing passing work but finds it impossible, because of reasons beyond her or his control, such as illness, to complete the required work by the end of the term. The student must have attended class to within three weeks of the close of the semester or a proportionate time for a summer session or short course, and the quality of the work must be such that the student can complete it through special assignments and/or examinations. The instructor will specify (1) the date by which the required work must be completed, which will be no later than the final class day of the corresponding term of the following academic year, and (2) the default grade (B, C, D, or F) which will be assigned if the work is not completed by the specified date. The student will be notified of the default date and grade. Once a default grade has been placed on a student's record, it can be changed only with the approval of the Graduate School. For graduating students, incompletes in courses listed on their Degree Audit must be removed in Academic Records at least three weeks prior to the end of the final examination period.

Deferred Credit

Deferred credit (DE) is always given in research and performance courses leading to a thesis, dissertation or exhibition. Credit will be allowed when the student satisfactorily completes all requirements for the program. Deferred credit (DE) is not used in computing the cumulative grade point average.

Repetition of Course(s)

If a student completes a course or drops a course after the tenth day of classes receiving a grade of WX, he or she may repeat that course once. For students receiving a letter grade of B, C, D, or F the course repetition must occur at Illinois State University. When a course has been repeated at Illinois State University, the most recent grade (A, B, C, D, F, WX) that the student earns will replace the previous grade in the cumulative GPA calculation. A grade of WX will not replace the previous grade. The previous grade will not be removed from the student's transcript, and only the credit hours from the last attempt can be used toward meeting minimum hourly requirements toward degree completion. Requests for a third or subsequent enrollment for a course are initiated with the student's advisor. The advisor then reviews the request and forwards it to the Graduate School. Students repeating a course to improve their GPA should be aware that many professional and graduate schools recalculate GPAs to include all courses attempted. This regulation does not apply to general courses (See Colleges, Departments, Schools, and Course Offerings). Some courses may be taken for credit more than once. These courses are indicated in the catalog by "multiple enrollments allowed" or "multiple enrollments allowed up to a maximum of x hours," and these courses are exempt from the repeat policy stated above. For courses such as these, a separate grade is recorded for each enrollment and each grade (A, B, C, D, or F) is counted toward the student's GPA. Later grades do not replace earlier grades for courses of this type.

Missing Grade

A missing grade (M) is assigned when no grade has been received after the grade submission deadline has passed. For graduating students, a missing grade must be removed at least six weeks before December or May commencement or two weeks before August graduation. Instructors must file a grade change form as students will not be allowed to graduate with a missing grade on their record.

Disciplinary Hold

A student may not graduate with a disciplinary hold on his or her record.

50 Percent Rule

Based on Higher Learning Commission Accreditation requirements, all master's degree programs require a minimum of 50 percent of the non-thesis credit hours applied to the degree to be 400-level courses or above.

New Start Policy

Students who leave an Illinois State graduate degree program and return to Illinois State to pursue a different graduate degree may begin the new degree program with a new graduate GPA calculated from the point of their readmission to the Graduate School as long as (1) the student is admissible to the new graduate program at Illinois State and meets all the criteria established by the Graduate School; (2) the student has not enrolled at Illinois State University for a period of at least three years; and (3) the New Start provision is approved by the new department or school at the time of readmission.

Graduate courses taken prior to being readmitted to the Graduate School will not apply or count toward the graduate program for the new degree. Students may exercise the “New Start” option only once and must follow the re-entry catalog. Such students will have “New Start” indicated on their transcript.

Transfer of Degree Programs

A transfer from one degree program to another requires approval of the receiving department or school through the formal application process. The student must apply to the new department or school and be accepted before being allowed to transfer to that department or school.

Withdrawal and Dropped Courses

Students are strongly advised to complete all courses in which they enroll and are encouraged to avoid withdrawing from any course after the program change period unless absolutely necessary.

Withdrawal/Dropped Courses with Maintained Enrollment: The following policy applies to students who drop a course or courses but maintain an enrolled status within the University: A student may withdraw from a course during the program change period without the withdrawal being shown on the transcript. A student should consult the Registrar’s website Registrar.IllinoisState.edu to obtain specific dates.

After the tenth day of classes, but prior to the end of the eighth week of classes during any regular semester, a student with photo identification may withdraw from a full semester course by reporting to the Registrar Service Center, 107 Moulton Hall.

Course withdrawal deadline information can be found on the Registrar’s website at Registrar.IllinoisState.edu. For courses taken during a term lasting less than a regular semester, a proportional withdrawal period will apply. For questions regarding tuition adjustments, students should review the University Withdrawal Policy at StudentAccounts.IllinoisState.edu/Withdrawal or at (309) 438-5643.

A grade of F will be given to students who (1) fail to withdraw officially from a course in compliance with the above procedure, or (2) register for a course but do not complete course requirements.

Upon the written recommendation of a licensed physician or clinical psychologist, or in other unusual circumstances, a student may be granted permission to withdraw officially from a course for medical, psychological, or other similar reasons after the official withdrawal period upon receiving approval from the University Registrar, or his designee. If approval is granted, a grade of WX will be awarded.

Withdrawal/Dropped All Courses: The following policy applies when a student drops all courses in which he or she is enrolled, which is known as withdrawal from the University. Students are strongly advised to complete courses in which they are enrolled and not to withdraw from the University unless absolutely necessary.

Before the end of the twelfth week of classes during any regular semester, a student reports to the Registrar Service Center in 107 Moulton Hall or writes to the Office of the University Registrar at Campus Box 2202 to withdraw from the University.

If a student’s written request to withdraw from the University is granted, all grades will be assigned in the same manner and under the same provisions as the regular course withdrawal guidelines. The instructor of each course assigns a WX or letter grade as appropriate depending on the date and circumstances of withdrawal. If medical or other reasons make it impossible for the student to follow the usual procedures, a letter requesting withdrawal that explains the situation, with appropriate documentation and the student’s signature, will be sufficient. Withdrawals made by mail are addressed to Office of the University Registrar, Illinois State University, Campus Box 2202, Normal, IL 61790-2202, or by fax to (309) 438-8652.

Regardless of the circumstances of withdrawal, the student is responsible for returning any laboratory equipment and library materials and paying for any parking fines. Students should consult the University Withdrawal Checklist located on the University Registrar’s website at Registrar.IllinoisState.edu for a listing of other offices that the students will need to notify regarding withdrawal.

A grade of F will be given to students who (1) do not attend their courses but fail to withdraw from the University before the specified final withdrawal date, and to students who (2) register for a course but do not complete course requirements. In unusual cases, exceptions may be granted by the University Registrar.

Changes in Schedule Policy

A student who drops a course will be charged according to the following schedule:

1. If the reduction is on or before the fifteenth calendar day after the first regularly scheduled class day, tuition and fees are reduced by 100 percent except for health insurance.
2. If the reduction is after the fifteenth but no later than the thirtieth calendar day after the first regularly scheduled class day, the student will be charged 75 percent of tuition and 100 percent of fees.

Academic Dishonesty

Policy B1. Academic Dishonesty.

Students are expected to be honest in all academic work. A student's attachment of his or her name on any academic exercise shall be regarded as assurance that the work is the result of the student's own thought, effort, and study. Violations include such behavior as:

- a. Possessing or utilizing any means of assistance (books, notes, papers, articles, third parties, etc.) to complete any assignment, quiz, or examination unless specifically authorized by the instructor. Students are prohibited from conversation or other communication in examinations except as authorized by the instructor.
- b. Acting with intent to deceive the person in charge, such as falsifying data or sources, providing false information, etc.
- c. Plagiarizing. For the purpose of this policy, plagiarism is the unacknowledged appropriation of another's work, words, or ideas in any themes, outlines, papers, reports, speeches, computer programs, artwork, musical scores, performance, or other academic work, regardless of intent. This includes all forms of intellectual property that can be copyrighted, patented, or trademarked, whether published or unpublished. Students must ascertain from the instructor in each course the appropriate means of documentation and/or attribution.
- d. Submitting the same paper for more than one university course without the prior approval of the instructors. A student may only submit an assignment once during their affiliation with the University unless provided explicit permission of the instructors.
- e. Willfully giving or receiving unauthorized or unacknowledged assistance on any assignment. This may include the reproduction and/or dissemination of test materials. Both parties to such collusion are considered responsible.

- f. Substituting for another student in any academic assignment.
- g. Being involved in the unauthorized collection, distribution advertisement, solicitation, or sale of term papers, research papers, or other academic materials completed by a third party.

In cases of group assignments, unless otherwise indicated by the instructor, all parties to the assignment are responsible for the submission of any final product, and bear responsibility for the integrity of the product. Students participating in group projects may be held responsible for the actions of other group members unless it can be established that a group member was not aware, and reasonably could not have been aware, of any material that violates University expectations.

Academic integrity expectations apply to all forums used for the collection and dissemination of knowledge, including in the classroom, written and electronic assignments, online participation, field work, and publications.

For the purpose of this policy, it should be noted that the University holds graduate students to a higher standard given the academic rigor of graduate programs and the fact that students in graduate programs are already degreed students. As such, graduate students may face more severe levels of sanctioning for academic misconduct, and may also face repercussions in their academic departments and assistantships.

Master of Business Administration - Requirements for this degree are listed in the section devoted to the College of Business.

Master of Science: Refer to departments and schools for specific requirements.

Master of Science in Education: The Master of Science in Education degree may be awarded to students who have met the requirements as designated in the individual departments or school in the College of Education. Refer to departments for specific requirements.

Master of Music and Master of Music Education: Requirements for these degrees are listed in the School of Music section.

Master of Fine Arts (Art and Theatre): Requirements for these degrees are listed in the school sections of this catalog and also under the heading of Master of Fine Arts.

Master of Social Work: See school section for information.

Master of Science in Nursing: See Mennonite College of Nursing section for information.

Integrated Bachelor of Science/Master of Professional Accountancy: See department section for information.

General Degree Requirements

Master of Arts: The Master of Arts degree is awarded to a student who has completed an appropriate degree program and met the foreign language requirement for this degree at the college level. This requirement may be met by:

1. Completing a minimum of four semesters (or its equivalent) in one foreign language. The requirement may be met by earning a grade of C or better (or Credit or Pass) in the courses at either the graduate or undergraduate level.
2. Obtaining a satisfactory score on a university administered language examination approved by the Graduate School available in French, German, or Spanish at the University College Office. For additional information visit UniversityCollege.IllinoisState.edu/testing.
3. Other methods as determined by the department or school with approval by the Graduate School.
4. Students whose native language is not English may, with departmental or school approval, petition the Graduate School to substitute proficiency in the English language as fulfillment of the language requirement.
5. Students wishing to use American Sign Language as the language requirement may do so if they have completed 4 semesters of ASL for credit at an accredited college or university (no adult education courses). Proficiency may also be tested but requires the use of an outside consultant. A fee will be assessed if a proficiency test is needed.

Degree Options and Credit Requirements: Master's degrees are offered for the Master of Arts (M.A.), Master of Science (M.S.), and several professional master's degrees. The M.A. and M.S. degrees focus on methodology and practice of research and scholarship in the discipline. The M.A. and M.S. degrees require a minimum of 30 semester hours, a final examination or culminating experience, and, in some fields, a thesis reflecting original scholarship or research.

The following are the degree options, however, not all programs offer both options:

1. Master's Degree with Thesis: No more than 6 and no less than 4 semester hours for thesis research and writing may be counted toward satisfying the 30 semester hour minimum of graduate work for a master's degree with thesis. Fifty percent of all non-thesis hours must be at the 400 level and above.
2. Master's Degree without Thesis: Consists of at least 30 semester hours of graduate work and includes a Comprehensive Examination and/or a culminating requirement demonstrating a mature application of skills and knowledge (e.g., professional practice, project, colloquia, recital).

Degree Audit: A degree audit documents courses, credit hours, grades and other degree requirement specifics. The degree audit is to be completed no later than the beginning of the last semester in which the student is enrolled prior to graduation. The due dates are posted on the Graduate School website. A student cannot graduate without an approved degree audit on file.

Once an option has been approved on the formal degree audit, it can be changed only with approval of the student's academic advisor. However, when a degree audit is submitted to the Graduate School in the semester of anticipated completion, it can be changed only with written approval of the academic advisor and the Graduate School. The degree audit form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/academics/forms.

Course Limitations: There are limitations to the number of courses that may be taken. They include but are not limited to:

1. Candidates for a master's degree may present no more than 9 total hours of credit from general courses 393, 397, 400, 493, and 498.
2. Master's degree students may only take a maximum of 6 credit hours from 400 Independent Study.

3. Students may transfer up to 9 credit hours from another university if they meet the requirements outlined on the Transfer of Credit form. See details below.
4. A visiting student may use up to 12 credit hours toward a degree once they are admitted into the program.

Fifty percent of all non-thesis hours must be at the 400 level and above.

Transfer Credit: Upon recommendation of the department or school where the student is enrolled and with the approval of the Graduate School, a student may present a maximum of nine semester hours of graduate credit from another college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association for use in meeting the requirements of the master's degree. Credits more than six years old at the time of first registration into a degree program are not transferable from other institutions. Transfer credit may not be used in meeting the minimum number of 400-level credit hours required for the master's degree. The work must not form part of a degree program elsewhere. Under special circumstances, the Graduate School may allow a student to present a larger number of credits if recommended by the department or school. A student who plans to take work elsewhere should obtain prior approval indicating that the course or courses are appropriate to the student's curriculum at Illinois State University. Correspondence courses and independent studies are not accepted toward a master's degree.

To be considered for transfer of credit, a course must be taught at the graduate level and the student must have received at least a B grade in the course. In addition, a departmental or school evaluation of all courses presented is necessary prior to consideration by the Graduate School. The Request for Transfer of Credit form is at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Residency Requirements: Except in the School of Art and Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, a candidate for a master's degree is not required to complete a residency requirement. For specific requirements of the department or school refer to the department or school program description.

Time Limitations: All requirements for the master's degree must be completed within six calendar years, beginning with the date the student first registers as a degree student. This time limit applies to enrollment in all graduate course work in the student's program including work for which transfer credit is allowed, as well as courses taken as a visiting student if the student wants to use the courses toward a degree. A Request to Extend Time to Complete Masters/Doctoral Degree Program must be completed by the student, graduate coordinator, and, if applicable, thesis chair, and submitted to the Graduate School for approval or denial. To access this form visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

If a course taken to complete the requirements for the master's degree is not within the six-year period allowed for the degree program, the student's department or school may require the student to retake the course for credit or allow the student to demonstrate current knowledge and/or proficiency of the subject matter. If the latter is used, currency must be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department or school offering the course through successful completion of an appropriate examination or other assessment if available from the department or school. Otherwise, outdated coursework must be deleted from, and other course work must be substituted in, the degree audit.

Credits more than six years old at the time of first registration into a degree program are not transferable from other institutions. Individual departments and schools may have more stringent timelines. When graduate study is interrupted by military service or other contingencies, the six year limit may be extended with the approval of both the department or school and the Graduate School.

Admission to Candidacy: To be admitted to candidacy for the master's degree the student must have a Degree Audit on file in the Graduate Office, completed all deficiencies, a minimum G.P.A. of 3.0 in graduate course work at Illinois State, and a copy of the Thesis Proposal approval form on file in the Graduate School if choosing a thesis option.

Comprehensive Examination: For the comprehensive examination option, a comprehensive examination must be taken by each student before receiving the master's degree. The content, process, scheduling, administration, and evaluation of the examination (oral, written, performance, or otherwise) are to be determined by each department and school. To apply for comprehensive examinations a student must be in good standing in a program, and have a Degree Audit on file in the department or school, not be on academic probation, and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 at the time of the examination.

A student who fails the examination must wait until the next academic term before repeating the entire examination unless there are reasons that make an exception advisable. The Graduate School is to be notified of exceptions. Students who have twice failed the examination are not to repeat the exam unless they have completed further study as prescribed by the department chair or school director. Comprehensive examinations may not be administered more than three times to individual students. Department chairs and school directors are to notify students, by letter, of examination results within thirty days from the examination date. A copy of this letter is to be sent to the Graduate School. (If it is a student's second failure, recommendations for further study and appropriate warning of the situation are to be included in the letter.) The Graduate School must receive the results from the department or school no fewer than 10 working days before the date of graduation.

Procedures for Comprehensive Examinations: After the first and second failure of comprehensive examination, the student can follow one of two courses of action if allowed by the department or school regulations:

1. Petition the department or school to select another degree option, if available, under the program.
2. Petition the department or school to repeat the comprehensive examination.

At the point of the third failure of comprehensive examination, the department or school can follow one of two courses of action:

1. Recommend that the student select another degree option, if available, under the program.
2. Recommend to the Graduate School that the student be dismissed from the degree program.

Thesis Option

Registration for Thesis Work: The student electing the thesis option must register for a minimum of four and a maximum of six hours of 499, Master's Thesis. Any student using the services of the academic faculty, staff, or the facilities of the University must be registered for the semester or term during which the services are rendered or the facilities are used including the thesis defense. Also, to register for 499 the student must actually be working on the subject under the direction of the advisor or thesis chairperson. No grade will be given for the course but credit will be entered on the student's record after the final thesis is uploaded to ProQuest and finalized by the Graduate School. No credit for 499 may be given to a student who does not complete a thesis.

Thesis Committee: A thesis is written under the direction of a thesis committee appointed in a manner specified by the department or school. The committee normally consists of three or more members of the Graduate Faculty, but shall not be fewer than two members. The committee chairperson and a majority of the committee shall be full members of the Graduate Faculty from the department or school in which the degree program is located. An associate member may co-chair a thesis with a full member. Proposed committee members who are not members of the Illinois State University Graduate Faculty must be approved by the Director of Graduate Studies. See the "Graduate Committee Information" section on the "Proposal Approval Form" to indicate the faculty who need approval to serve on the committee. A student must be admitted to a degree program in the Graduate School before a thesis committee can be appointed. The Proposal Approval Form is available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Thesis Proposal: The Thesis Proposal, including the title, scope, and design, must be approved by the student's thesis committee at the proposal hearing. The Thesis Proposal Approval Form should be completed after the successful proposal hearing and submitted and approved by the Graduate School before a student is admitted to candidacy to embark on thesis research. Institutional policy also requires that all research proposals involving human subjects be reviewed and approved by the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Research proposals involving animals must be reviewed by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). Research proposals involving biohazards must be reviewed by the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC). The Proposal Approval Form is available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/academics/forms.

There is no assumption of uniformity in thesis research. For example, a student may propose a creative project in art or music. However, the completed project must meet approved standards of scholarship in the chosen field of study. In special situations, and only with the approval of the thesis committee, the department chair or school director or designee, and the Graduate School, students may collaborate on some aspects of the work contributing to their theses. However, each thesis submitted to the Graduate School for approval must be a unique product with the degree candidate as the sole author and with due acknowledgment of the contribution of collaborators. The individual student must demonstrate to her or his committee satisfactory command of all aspects of the work presented.

Thesis Acceptance: A complete draft of the thesis must be uploaded to ProQuest before a "Right to Defend" will be issued to the student. The Graduate School recommends students sign up for a Format Check to ensure that format is consistent with the selected thesis style and the Formatting Guidelines available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics. After the Right to Defend is issued (Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics), the student must file examination copies of the thesis in the departmental or school office at least one week (seven days) before the thesis defense.

The defense of the thesis is open to the public. The department or school will notify in a timely manner its faculty, students, and the Graduate School about the thesis defense in a manner consistent with its normal departmental lines of communication. The Graduate School will notify the University community of the public presentation. Subject to reasonable expectations of the chair of the student's committee, visitors may participate in questioning and discussion relevant to the topic of the thesis. However, only members of the student's committee will vote and make a final recommendation on the acceptance of the thesis. Student must earn "Pass" from at least 60 percent of the members of his or her committee in order to pass the defense (unless a higher standard for pass is required by the department or school).

To be eligible for degree completion a student must upload the final draft of the thesis to ProQuest and submit the Final Deposit checklist and signed Outcome of Defense form, Grad.IllinoisState.edu/academics/forms, by the deadline published by the Graduate School. Theses filed after that date will be credited toward degree completion the following semester or term. The thesis format must be approved by the Graduate School before the degree will be conferred. A student must be in good standing to submit a thesis. Find the Dates and Deadlines for upcoming semesters at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics.

Continuous Thesis Registration: After the Thesis Proposal approval form has been accepted in the Graduate School and a student has completed the courses on the approved degree audit and registered for four to six hours of 499 Master's Thesis, the student is required to maintain continuous registration until the deposit of the final thesis on ProQuest and approval of the final thesis in the Graduate School. The requirement for continuous registration may be fulfilled by maintaining registration of 1 hour of 499 each semester through the semester of degree completion. (Students registering for less than 9 credit hours in fall or spring, or less than 6 credit hours in summer, will not have the insurance fee automatically assessed. See the Health Insurance section for further information.) The requirement for continuous registration does not apply during a summer term unless the student is graduating in that term. Registration for 499 may be in absentia. If circumstances prohibit continuous registration, a student must request a leave of absence from the department or school and then from the Graduate School. Any student interrupting registration without obtaining a leave of absence, upon reenrollment and/or reinstatement, must pay tuition and fees for one credit hour of 499, at the current tuition and fee rates, for each of the delinquent semesters. Any student requesting reinstatement in a degree program after a lapse of one calendar year must complete an application for readmission. The Proposal Approval Form and Degree Audit Form are available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Two Master's Degrees Simultaneously: A maximum of nine (9) hours of course work is allowable to count simultaneously toward two (2) master's degrees provided certain other stipulations are met. These stipulations are as follows: (1) that the student must be admitted to the second master's program prior to the completion of the first degree, (2) that all requirements for both degree programs be met within the six year time limit, (3) that a particular thesis may not be used to meet the degree requirements for more than one degree, and (4) that not more than three hours of the nine hours allowed to count toward the second degree be generated by independent study, practicum, or workshop credit.

Two Simultaneous Sequences Within A Master's Degree Program: Two sequences offered within the same degree program may be recognized on a student's transcript if the student is enrolled in both sequences simultaneously as part of the requirements for completing the degree program. A common core of degree requirements and common sequence requirements may be shared across both sequences subject to the following limitations:

1. Students must complete the requirements for both sequences before completing the degree requirements.
2. The requirements for the two sequences and the degree program must be completed within a six year time limit from the time of admission to the degree program.
3. No more than nine hours of independent study (400), workshop (493), or professional practice (498) can be shared for both sequences and the degree program.
4. Thesis hours may be shared by both sequences.

Students who have been awarded a graduate degree are not eligible to pursue a second sequence within the same degree program under these provisions.

Undergraduates Taking Graduate Courses For Graduate Credit: Undergraduates can take graduate courses for graduate credit if they (1) are in their final semester, (2) have no more than twelve hours of undergraduate coursework to complete, and (3) have been admitted conditionally into a graduate degree program at Illinois State. Total registration cannot exceed fifteen hours in that semester. Students must graduate at the end of that academic term to receive graduate credit for the courses taken. An exception is made when students must schedule professional practice/internship/student teaching requirements during their final semester. In such cases, qualified students may register for graduate courses during the academic term preceding the semester in which the professional practice/internship/student teaching requirements are met.

All coursework taken for graduate credit must be approved by the department or school and the Graduate School BEFORE students register. A form titled, "Approval for Graduate Credit for Senior Admitted to a Graduate Major" is available in the graduate admissions processing area of the Office of Admissions for this purpose (211 Hovey Hall).

Coursework will count toward a graduate degree only if a student qualifies under the above criteria. Coursework taken for graduate credit cannot count toward a bachelor's degree except under the provisions of integrated bachelor's/master's degree programs. This opportunity is also extended to last semester seniors of other universities who find it possible to take graduate work at this University while completing requirements for the bachelor's degree on their own campuses. Interested students should write to the Graduate School for further information. Such graduate courses cannot be used in meeting bachelor's degree requirements on their own campuses.

Integrated Bachelor's/Master's Degree Programs

An integrated degree program (B.S./M.P.A.) allows students to complete an undergraduate degree, in the same disciplinary area, within a timeframe that may be less than the traditional bachelor's and master's programs. Students take undergraduate- and graduate-level courses simultaneously beginning as early as the second semester of their junior year. Integrated degrees are normally a five- to six-year program for currently enrolled Illinois State University students. Students who wish to complete an integrated program will receive both degrees simultaneously upon completion of all program requirements for both degrees.

Admission: An applicant to an integrated program must be an Illinois State University undergraduate or a transfer student with 60 hours or less. Students who have received a bachelor's degree are not eligible for admission into an integrated program except under the provisions of obtaining a second bachelor's degree.

Admission to the integrated program generally occurs by the end of the sophomore year but with no more than 66 hours of required undergraduate coursework earned. After completing 75 undergraduate hours, the student must take any graduate standardized tests required by the program and apply for the graduate program (paying the graduate application fee). After 88 hours there is a preliminary audit of the undergraduate degree. At this time the student must have a 3.0 GPA and is eligible to enroll in graduate courses (400 level). The student remains classified as an undergraduate until 120 hours are completed, after which time they will be classified as a graduate student. Continuance in the integrated program is contingent upon meeting the minimum 3.0 GPA and other requirements needed for receiving both degrees. A department or school may establish a higher GPA for admissions and continuance.

Financial Eligibility: After completing 120 undergraduate hours, the student is (a) assessed tuition and fees at the graduate level, (b) eligible for financial aid at the graduate level, and (c) eligible for graduate assistantships, scholarships, fellowships, or other types of support or recognition normally available to graduate students. During the last semester of the undergraduate program, a student may be eligible to hold a graduate assistantship.

Exit Options: For the integrated program, the master's with thesis (4-6 hours of 499) or master's without thesis options are utilized. The master's without thesis option includes a comprehensive examination or culminating requirement demonstrating a mature application of skills and knowledge (e.g., professional practice, project, colloquia, or recital).

Withdrawal from Integrated Programs: Students contemplating withdrawal from the integrated program should contact their advisor. Students may elect to receive the bachelor's degree if they have completed the appropriate requirements. Students who elect to receive the bachelor's degree are terminated from the integrated program and are not eligible to be readmitted to or to receive an integrated degree. Students with bachelor's degree may seek admission to the regular master's program.

Time Limit: Students have seven years from the time of first enrollment in courses as an integrated degree student to complete the program (both degrees). Requests for extensions will be processed through the Graduate School. Use the "Request to Extend Time to Complete Masters/Doctoral Degree Program" form to request an extension of time available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Application for Degree Completion: After earning 88 hours toward the bachelor's degree, and early in the semester in which completion of the master's degree program is anticipated, the student applies separately for each degree, paying the appropriate fee for each. At that time, a master's Degree Audit is submitted to the Graduate School. For the commencement ceremony, the student is listed in both the bachelor's and master's sections of the commencement booklet and, if appropriate, listed for undergraduate honors. The application to participate in commencement is part of the degree completion application and is filed with the Graduate School Office. The commencement participation form will be forwarded to the staff in the Graduation Services unit. To locate the degree completion application visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

All policies and regulations that apply to undergraduate or graduate degree programs also apply to the integrated degree programs except as specifically differentiated in this section. The integrated undergraduate/graduate degree program offered at this time is the Integrated Bachelor of Science (B.S.)/Master of Professional Accountancy (M.P.A.).

Specialist in School Psychology

Admission: An applicant for the program leading to the Specialist in School Psychology (S.S.P.) degree must have a bachelor's degree from a four-year college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association, or its equivalent, as determined by the Graduate School. Applicants are considered on the basis of their academic record, scores on the general test (verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing) of the Graduate Record Examination, three recommendations, a personal statement, and a writing sample. To be admitted to the degree program a student must have at least a 3.0 grade point average (on a scale in which a grade of A equals 4 points) in the last 60 semester hours of undergraduate coursework and the approval of the academic department.

Credit Requirements: The S.S.P. degree requires the completion of a minimum of 60 semester hours of graduate level coursework including practicum experiences; a thesis or applied research experience in school psychology and a full-time internship in a school setting.

Time Limitations: All requirements for the S.S.P. degree must be completed within six calendar years, beginning with the date the student first registers as a Specialist in School Psychology degree student. This time limit applies to enrollment in all graduate coursework in the student's program including work for which transfer credit is allowed. If a course taken to complete the requirements for the S.S.P. degree is not taken within the six-year period allowed for the degree program, the student's department may require the student to retake the course for credit or allow the student to demonstrate current knowledge and/or proficiency of the subject matter. If the latter is used, currency must be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department offering the course through successful completion of an appropriate examination or other assessment if available from the department. Otherwise, outdated coursework must be deleted from, and other coursework must be substituted in, the degree audit. Credits more than six years old at the time of first registration into a degree program are not transferable from other institutions. When graduate study is interrupted by military service or other contingencies, the six year limit may be extended by the Graduate School. A Request to Extend Time to Complete Graduate Degree Program must be completed by the student, and graduate coordinator, and submitted to the Graduate School for approval or denial. The form may be found at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Admission to Candidacy: To be admitted to candidacy for the S.S.P. degree the student must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in graduate coursework at Illinois State, completed all deficiencies, successful completion of PSY 402 or a Thesis Proposal Approval form for PSY 499, on file in the Graduate School, if a thesis is the culminating experience for the specialist program, and an approved Degree Audit on file in the Graduate School. The Proposal Approval and Degree Audit forms are available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Master of Fine Arts

Offered in the School of Art and the School of Theatre and Dance, the Master of Fine Arts (M.F.A.) is a terminal degree that emphasizes theory and practice in a particular discipline of the arts.

Admission: All regular criteria for admission to a degree program in the Graduate School of the University will apply. In addition, applicants in Theatre must audition and applicants in Art must submit a portfolio along with meeting other School requirements. This material will be reviewed by the members of the Graduate Faculty in the applicant's intended area of emphasis. After evaluations have been completed, the Office of Admissions will notify the applicant of the decision regarding admission to the M.F.A.

Academic Advisors: In the School of Art, the student in the pre-candidacy phase of the program selects a major advisor with the help of the Graduate Coordinator/Director. With the help of the major advisor the student selects a candidacy review committee of three members. The chairperson of this committee must be from the student's major area of emphasis. Normally, the candidacy review committee continues as the student's graduate committee during the candidacy phase of the program.

For a listing of program Coordinators/Directors see Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Faculty/Coordinators.

In the School of Theatre and Dance the director, in consultation with faculty whom the director deems appropriate, will select the candidate's Portfolio Committee. The committee chairperson must come from the student's major area of emphasis.

Curriculum Requirements: A professionally oriented program, the M.F.A. requires a minimum of 60 semester hours for a student with only a bachelor's degree or a minimum of 32 hours for a student with an earned master's degree. The total hours required for a student with an earned master's degree will be based on an evaluation of the student's portfolio and academic record. However, the final determination will not be made until the student has completed a minimum of six semester hours in the student's major area of emphasis. A candidate for the degree must demonstrate proficiency both as a practitioner and a teacher in one of several areas of emphasis listed in the Graduate Catalog.

Time Limitations: All requirements for the Master of Fine Arts degree must be completed within eight calendar years, beginning with the date the student first registers as a degree student. This time limit applies to enrollment in all graduate coursework in the student's program, including work for which transfer credit is allowed. If a course taken to complete the requirements for the M.F.A. degree is not taken within the eight year period allowed for the degree program, the student's school may require the student to retake the course for credit or allow the student to demonstrate current knowledge of the subject matter. If the latter is used, currency must be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the school offering the course through successful completion of an appropriate examination or other assessment if available from the school. Otherwise, outdated coursework must be deleted from, and other coursework must be substituted in, the degree audit. Credits more than eight years old at the time of first registration into a degree program are not transferable from other institutions. When graduate study is interrupted by military service or other contingencies, the eight-year limit may be extended by the Graduate School. Use the Request to Extend Time to Complete Masters/Doctoral Degree Program form at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Transfer Credit: Credits more than eight years old at the time of first registration into a Master of Fine Arts degree program are not transferable from other institutions. The work must not form part of a completed degree program elsewhere. Under special circumstances, the Graduate School may allow a student to present a larger number of credits if recommended by the school. A student who plans to take work elsewhere should obtain prior approval indicating that the course or courses are appropriate to the student's curriculum at Illinois State University.

To be considered for transfer of credit, a course must meet the criteria outlined on the Transfer of Credit form and obtain approval from the Graduate School. The Transfer of Credit form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

In the School of Art, a student can transfer no more than nine semester hours of credit from any graduate program (including a master's program in Art at Illinois State University) for use in meeting the requirements of the M.F.A. degree.

In the School of Theatre and Dance, a student who does not have an earned master's degree may present a maximum of six semester hours of credit from another college or university for use in meeting the requirements of the M.F.A. degree. However, the student may present all earned hours from a master's program in Theatre at Illinois State for use in meeting these requirements. A Theatre student who has an earned master's degree must earn a minimum of 32 hours in the M.F.A. program at Illinois State University.

Residency Requirement: A student without an earned master's degree must complete a residency requirement of at least four semesters with at least two of them being full-time, consecutive semesters. A student with an earned master's degree must complete a residency requirement of at least two full-time, consecutive semesters. Summer session may be counted toward the two consecutive semester requirement only in the School of Theatre and Dance.

Admission to Candidacy: In order to be admitted to candidacy, the student without an earned master's degree must have completed 24 hours of graduate study at Illinois State University or two semesters of full-time resident study.

The student with an earned master's degree must have completed 12 hours of graduate study at Illinois State University or one semester of full-time resident study. All students must have a grade average of B or better with no more than 5 (6 in Theatre) hours below a grade of B.

Before becoming a candidate for the M.F.A. in Art the student must pass a candidacy review that includes approval of the following items: portfolio of studio work, final Degree Audit, and proposal for the Supportive Statement (an exhibition-related written project).

Before becoming a candidate for the M.F.A. in Theatre the student must have a Degree Audit on file with the Graduate School and pass a qualifying examination which is administered by the student's M.F.A. portfolio committee. Admission to candidacy, which usually occurs in the final semester, must be satisfied before the student is allowed to schedule an exit portfolio presentation. The Degree Audit form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

General Course Limitations: Candidates for the M.F.A. may present no more than 15 total hours of general courses 393, 397, 400, 493, 498, and 500 toward their degree.

For additional program requirements, see the department and/or school sections of this catalog.

Doctor of Philosophy

The Doctor of Philosophy degree is designed for the preparation of individuals competent in research and scholarly inquiry whose career objectives are generally in research, teaching, consultation, or leadership roles in universities, colleges, institutes, educational agencies or private practice.

Admission: Students seeking admission to a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree program must submit letters of recommendation and scores on the General Test of the Graduate Record Examination if required by the department or school. An official transcript for doctoral applicants (excluding Au.D) is required from the institution conferring the bachelor's degree and all transcripts containing graduate hours. The admission grade point average is a computation of all previous work at the graduate level. Students may be required to come to the campus for an interview. Admission to a Ph.D. program will take account of personal and professional qualifications as well as scholastic records and measurement of academic ability. Admission to a Ph.D. program requires a level of preparation equivalent to a master's degree in an appropriate discipline from an accredited institution. Departments may make exceptions in specific cases. Admission requires approval by both the department and the Graduate School.

Academic Advisor: Each department is responsible for advising each student upon admittance to the program and informing the student of the source of this assistance. The student's Degree Audit must have the approval of appropriate departmental or school officials and the Graduate School and should be submitted early in the student's program. For a complete listing of each program's graduate coordinator(s) or director(s) please visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Faculty/Coordinators/

Minor Fields: A Doctor of Philosophy student may select a minor field (or fields) of study. The selection and composition of a minor field (or fields) must have the approval of the Graduate School and the major and minor departments. A minor field may, under certain circumstances, be in the same department or school as a major field.

Doctoral Residency: Full-time residency, for the purposes indicated above, consists of at least two terms. A term is one semester or a summer session of at least eight weeks.

Departments and schools may add additional residency requirements to the minimum stated above.

Full time residency is defined as at least nine semester hours of coursework during a semester or six semester hours during a summer session. Departments and schools may develop other options for meeting the residency requirement through the curricular process. Once a residency option is approved, it shall appear in the departmental or school section of the graduate catalog.

Each student will file a Declaration of Residency for approval of the department prior to entering into residency. The department or school will verify the completion of residency and then file the declaration with the Graduate School. Any exceptions to the above requirements must have the approval of the department or school and the Graduate School.

Purposes of a Doctoral Residency:

1. To orient and prepare graduate students to meet academic expectations and engage in activities that are associated with involvement in a scholarly environment within a community of scholars as they pursue their doctoral degree.
2. To engage and stimulate the intellectual, personal, and social development of graduate students in the process of inquiry.

Time Limitations: All requirements for a Ph.D., including the dissertation, must be completed by the end of eight calendar years beginning with the date the student first registers as a Doctor of Philosophy degree student. This time limit applies to enrollment in all graduate coursework in the student's program. If a course taken to complete the requirements for the Ph.D. degree is not taken within the eight-year period allowed for the degree program, the student's department may require the student to retake the course for credit or allow the student to demonstrate current knowledge of the subject matter. If the latter is used, currency must be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department offering the course through successful completion of an appropriate examination or other assessment if available from the department. Courses from other institutions falling outside the limitation of time may not be used in a graduate program. When graduate study is interrupted by military service or other contingencies, the eight-year limit may be extended by the Graduate School. A Request to Extend Time to Complete Graduate Degree Program must be completed by the student, graduate coordinator/director, and if applicable, dissertation chair, and submitted to the Graduate School for approval or denial. The Request to Extend Time to Complete Graduate Degree form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Course Requirements: A Doctor of Philosophy degree is not granted on the basis of a student having successfully completed a certain number of courses, but upon evidence of scholarly attainment as demonstrated especially by competence in research.

Comprehensive/Preliminary Examination: The comprehensive/preliminary examination is written, or, written and oral. It is also concerned with the student's professional competence and ability to undertake independent research. The content, process, scheduling, administration, and evaluation of the examination is to be determined by each department and school. To apply for comprehensive examinations a student must be in good standing in a program, and have a Degree Audit on file in the department or school, not be on academic probation, and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 at the time of the examination.

A student who fails the examination must wait until the next academic term before repeating the entire examination unless there are reasons that make an exception advisable. The Graduate School is to be notified of exceptions. Students who have twice failed the examination are not to repeat the exam unless they have completed further study as prescribed by the department chair or school director. Comprehensive examinations may not be administered more than three times to individual students. Department chairs and school directors are to notify students, by letter, of examination results within thirty days from the examination date. A copy of this letter is to be sent to the Graduate School. (If it is a student's second failure, recommendations for further study and appropriate warning of the situation are to be included in the letter.) The Graduate School must receive the results from the department or school no fewer than 10 working days before the date of graduation.

Procedures for Comprehensive Examinations: After the first and second failure of comprehensive examination, the student can, if allowed by the department or school regulations, petition the department or school to repeat the comprehensive examination.

At the point of the third failure of comprehensive examination, the department or school will recommend to the Graduate School that the student be dismissed from the degree program.

Admission to Candidacy: A Doctor of Philosophy student will be admitted to candidacy after: (a) a Degree Audit has been submitted to the Graduate School and approved, (b) the comprehensive/preliminary examination has been successfully completed and reported to the Graduate School, (c) the research tool requirement has been met, and (d) the dissertation proposal has been approved by the dissertation committee and by the Graduate School (the form is available on the Graduate School website). The Degree Audit form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Registration for Dissertation Work: Fifteen semester hours of 599 Doctoral Research are required for the Ph.D. degree. Any student using the services of the academic staff or the facilities of the University must be registered for the semester or term during which the services are rendered or facilities are used. Also, to register for 599 the student must actually be working on the research under the direction of the advisor or dissertation chairperson.

Continuous Registration: Once admitted to candidacy in a Doctor of Philosophy degree program, as defined by the Admission to Candidacy policy, and after the student has completed all coursework on the Degree Audit and the required number of hours (15) of 599 Doctoral Research, the student is required to maintain continuous registration until the deposit of the final dissertation on ProQuest and in the Graduate School. The requirement for continuous registration may be fulfilled by maintaining registration in 1 hour of 599 each semester through the semester of degree completion. (Students registering for less than 9 credit hours in fall or spring, or less than 6 credit hours in summer, will not have the insurance fee automatically assessed. See the Health Insurance section for further information.) The requirement for continuous registration does not apply during a summer term unless the student is graduating in that term. Registration for 599 may be in absentia. If circumstances prohibit continuous registration a student must request a leave of absence from the department and then from the Graduate School. Any student interrupting registration without obtaining a leave of absence, upon reenrollment and/or reinstatement, must pay tuition and fees for one credit hour of 599, at the current tuition and fee rates, for each of the delinquent semesters. Any student requesting reinstatement in a degree program after a lapse of one calendar year must direct an application for readmission to the Admissions Office.

Dissertation Committee For Ph.D.: A dissertation is written under the direction of a dissertation committee appointed in a manner specified by the department. The committee must consist of three (3) members from within the department and may include additional internal or external members at the department's discretion. The chair and a majority of the committee shall be full members of the Graduate Faculty from the department in which the degree program is located. Proposed committee members who are not members of the Illinois State University Graduate Faculty must be approved by the Director of Graduate Studies. See the "Graduate Committee Information" section on the Proposal Approval Form to indicate the faculty that need approval to serve on the committee. All committee members must have terminal degrees. The Proposal Approval form is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Dissertation Proposal For Ph.D.: The student is required to file a Proposal Approval Form with the department or school and with the Graduate School for approval before embarking on dissertation research. Institutional policy also requires that all research proposals involving human subjects be reviewed by the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Research proposals involving animals must be reviewed and approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). Research proposals involving biohazards must be reviewed by the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC). The dissertation for the Ph.D. must involve independent research and an original contribution to knowledge. See RSP.IllinoisState.edu.

Dissertation Acceptance: A complete draft of the dissertation must be uploaded to ProQuest before the "Right to Defend" (Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Thesis-dissertation/) will be issued to the student. The Graduate School recommends students sign up for a Format Check to ensure that the dissertation is consistent with the selected dissertation style Formatting Guidelines available at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Thesis-dissertation/

After the "Right to Defend" is issued, the student must file an examination copy of the dissertation in the departmental office at least one week (seven days) before the dissertation defense. The defense of the dissertation is open to the academic community of the University. The chair of the examining committee will notify the Graduate School of the date, time, location and tentative title of the dissertation two weeks prior to the defense. The Graduate School will notify the University community of the public presentation. Subject to reasonable expectations of the chair of the student's committee, visitors may participate in questioning and discussion relevant to the topic of the dissertation. However, only members of the student's committee will vote and make a final recommendation on the acceptance of the dissertation. The Graduate School or designee and any other members of the Graduate Faculty of that department or school may be in attendance during the committee's deliberations. Following the defense, the student must upload the final copy of the dissertation to the ProQuest website available on the Graduate School website (Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Thesis-dissertation/) and file the Outcome of Defense Form, final deposit checklist, and the original of the approved dissertation in the Graduate School prepared according to specific online dissertation guidelines, unbound, with any corrections suggested by the committee. See the complete guidelines at the following: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Thesis-dissertation/. Before a dissertation is finally accepted by the Graduate School, it will be examined again to verify corrections and conformity to university requirements.

To be eligible for degree completion a student must upload the final draft of the dissertation to ProQuest and submit the Final Deposit checklist and signed Outcome of Defense form (Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms) to the Graduate School before the end of the final semester and by the deadline published by the Graduate School. Dissertations filed after that date will be credited toward degree completion the following semester or term. The dissertation format must be approved by the Graduate School before the degree will be conferred. View Dates and Deadlines for upcoming semesters at: Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Thesis-dissertation/.

Doctor of Education

The Doctor of Education degree is designed for the preparation of practitioners competent in identifying and solving complex educational problems and who have the ability to understand and conduct research in their field. The career objectives of program graduates generally lie in areas of education at any academic level.

For information on Admission, Academic Advisor, Minor Fields, Purposes of a Doctoral Residency, Time Limitations, Course Requirements, Comprehensive/Preliminary Examination, Admission to Candidacy, Registration for Dissertation Work, Continuous Registration, Dissertation Committee, Dissertation Acceptance, see the Doctor of Philosophy section.

Research Tool Requirement for an Ed.D.: Candidates are expected to have developed research competencies appropriate to doctoral candidates in their fields. These involve proficiencies in quantitative and/or qualitative research and may include such areas as statistics, measurement and evaluation, and field studies/ethnography.

Dissertation Proposal for an Ed.D.: The student is required to file a Proposal Approval Form with the department or school and with the Graduate School for approval before embarking on dissertation research. Institutional Policy also requires that all research proposals involving human subjects be reviewed and approved by the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Research proposals involving animals must be reviewed by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). Research proposals involving biohazards must be reviewed by the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC). See RSP.IllinoisState.edu/research. A copy of the Proposal Approval Form shall be deposited in the Graduate School no later than the early part of the semester or term in which completion of the degree is expected, in accordance with the deadlines published by the Graduate School.

While the dissertation for the Ed.D. may meet the expectation for independent research and an original contribution to knowledge, it is customary to allow greater flexibility for the Ed.D. dissertation, so that it may, for instance, involve the application of existing knowledge or theory to a practical educational problem or situation. The Proposal Approval Form may be found at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Non-Degree Graduate Level Certificates

Graduate-level certificates are graduate courses of study approved by an academic unit designed to provide professional development and career advancement opportunities, to broaden career options, or to enhance an individual's skills or education as part of the process of life-long learning. These certificates are not part of degree programs, although courses completed as part of a certificate curriculum could be used in meeting degree requirements, where appropriate.

A non-degree graduate certificate student is one who has been formally admitted by a department or school to a specific course of study leading to a certificate. There are three types of non-degree graduate certificates.

1. Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 9 but no more than 17 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the bachelor's degree.

2. Post-Baccalaureate Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the baccalaureate degree, but fewer hours than a master's degree.
3. Post-Master's Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 24 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the master's degree, but fewer hours than a doctoral degree.

Admission: An applicant for a course of study leading to a Graduate or Post-Baccalaureate Certificate must have a bachelor's degree from a four-year college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association, or its equivalent as determined by the Graduate School. For a Post-Master's Certificate, the applicant must have a master's degree from a college or university that is accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association, or its equivalent as determined by the Graduate School. Applicants must also meet the specific requirements stipulated by the academic unit offering the certificate. The admissions procedure is outlined within the section titled General Admission Information.

Academic Advisor: A Graduate, Post-Baccalaureate, or Post-Master's certificate course of study shall have a designated coordinator or director assigned by the academic unit chair that is sponsoring the certificate to advise students and confirm completion of the certificate requirements.

For a complete listing of each certificate program's graduate coordinator(s) or director(s) please visit Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Faculty/Coordinators.

GPA Minimum: In order to be awarded the certificate, a student must have a minimum graduate GPA of 3.0 in the set of courses required for the certificate.

Time Limitations: All requirements for a graduate level certificate must be completed within six calendar years, beginning with the date the student first registers as a graduate level certificate student. This limitation applies to enrollment in all graduate coursework for the certificate including work for which transfer credit is allowed. Refer to the time limitation regulation for master's degrees for additional criteria which would apply.

Transfer of Credit: No more than 40 percent of coursework hours required can be transferred from other accredited institutions to satisfy the certificate requirements.

Additional Requirements and Information:

- Students must complete the same prerequisites or have the equivalent experiences as graduate degree candidates to enroll in specific courses.

- No differentiation in course requirements will exist between graduate certificate courses and graduate degree courses.
- Students seeking a graduate level certificate are subject to the academic policies and regulations indicated in the Graduate Catalog.
- There will not be university recognition of graduate level certificate completion as part of the degree commencement activities except by agreement of the College whose academic unit sponsors the certificate.
- The granting of a graduate level certificate will appear on the University transcript.

Eligibility for Financial Aid, Assistantships, or Fellowships: Certificate students are not eligible for graduate assistantships or fellowships intended for degree-seeking students nor federal financial aid. Graduate tuition waivers are granted at the discretion of the awarding unit.

Use of Courses in Degree Programs: Courses taken as part of a graduate certificate can be counted towards a master's degree following degree grading criteria if the courses are appropriate for the specific degree program, and are taken within an approved time frame.

Admission to a Degree Program: Individuals in a graduate-level certificate program who wish to apply to a degree program will go through the usual admissions process for a master's degree, using the usual documentation (transcripts, standardized scores, etc.).

Applying for Degree Completion – All Degrees and Certificates

Students must meet all requirements for their curriculum. A graduate student must apply for degree completion before the deadlines for each session as specified by the Graduate School. At the time application is made, the degree completion fee must be paid. Applications for students who fail to meet degree completion requirements for a specific session are cancelled, and the students must reapply for a later session. The application for degree completion is available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Students completing a certificate program must complete the application for completion of a non-degree graduate level certificate program available at Grad.IllinoisState.edu/Academics/Forms.

Commencement – All Degrees and Certificates

Degrees are conferred and diplomas awarded after the close of each semester and summer session; commencement ceremonies, however, are held twice each year at the end of each fall and spring semester. Participation is voluntary. Graduate students who complete degree requirements during the fall semester participate in commencement exercises in December; students who complete degree requirements during the spring semester or at the close of the summer session participate in commencement exercises in May. This regulation does not apply to doctoral students. All doctoral students must complete all requirements for the degree to participate in Commencement. Additional information on commencement and conferring of degrees is available at GraduationServices.IllinoisState.edu.

Certificate students do not participate in University commencement ceremonies except by agreement of the College which sponsors the academic unit.

Course Numbering System

This Graduate Catalog contains courses numbered 300 to 599. Courses 300-399 are advanced undergraduate courses and are open to juniors, seniors, and graduate students. Only 300-level courses listed in the Graduate Catalog are available for graduate credit. To receive graduate credit, students must complete applicable graduate requirements provided in the course syllabus. Courses 400-499 are graduate courses. Courses 500-599 generally are limited to terminal degree students in programs such as the Ed.D., M.F.A., Au.D., D.N.P., and Ph.D.

The following information is given for each course, in the following order: course number (3 digits preceding the title), course title and credit value (in semester hours). Following the course description any prerequisites, restrictions on enrollment, and any special considerations are noted.

Limitation of credit: Candidates for a master's degree may present no more than 9 hours of credit from the asterisk courses toward their degrees (393, 397, 400, 493, and 498).

Workshops, Institutes and Professional Practice may be offered as graduate courses on a Credit/No Credit (CR/NC) basis. For these courses, students receive a grade of CR (Credit) or NC (No Credit). Departments may offer 393, 397, 429XX, 493 and 498 on a CR/NC basis with approval in advance by the department or school and the Graduate School. CR/NC courses cannot be computed in the GPA. To count towards a degree program, CR/NC courses must be approved through the curricular process.

CHEMISTRY (CHE)214 Julian Hall, (309) 438-7661*Chemistry.IllinoisState.edu*Chairperson: Craig McLauchlan.Graduate Program Director: Lisa Szczepura.Graduate Faculty: Baur, Boesdorfer, Driskell, Ferrence, Friesen, Hamaker, Hitchcock, Hughes, Hunter, Jones, Kim, Lash, McLauchlan, Mitchell, Mulligan, Nagorski, Peters, Standard, E. Sullivan, Szczepura, Weitzel, Zona.Programs Offered

Master of Science in Chemistry (M.S.), Master of Science in Chemistry Education (M.S.C.E.), and Master of Chemistry Education (M.C.E.).

Master of Science in Chemistry Program Requirements

The program is broad-based, and allows students to specialize in any of the sub-disciplines (physical, organic, inorganic, analytical, biochemistry, or chemical education), although coursework is required in at least four sub-disciplines. The Master of Science in Chemistry (M.S.) is a thesis-based M.S. degree requiring 31 credit hours including: Four hours each in CHE 490 (Research) and CHE 499 (Master's Thesis) are required as part of the 31-hour program, although most students will register for more than the total of eight required hours while pursuing the degree. Students select a research advisor and work closely with that faculty member to complete a thesis based upon original research. Upon completion of a written thesis, a final oral examination/thesis defense is required.

In general, students admitted to the Master of Science in Chemistry program should have completed coursework in science and math equivalent to that required for a B.S. degree in Chemistry at Illinois State University or have received an American Chemical Society-certified B.S. degree from another school. If a student will be admitted to the Master's degree program with deficiencies (though no student will be admitted with 12 or more credit hours of deficiencies in Chemistry coursework), the deficiencies will be identified as specific courses and students will have to complete those courses as early as possible in order to bring their background coursework to the required level. All deficiencies should be completed by the end of the third semester in the program. In general, credit earned for completion of deficiencies does not apply toward M.S. degree requirements unless the student petitions the Department and receives approval to count specific courses (up to a maximum of six credit hours) for graduate credit in the student's plan of study, and only those courses listed in the Graduate Catalog may be counted for graduate credit.

This 31 hour degree requires:

- 21 hours of 400 and/or 300-level courses including a minimum of 12 credit hours of courses at the 400 level in 3 sub-disciplines (analytical, inorganic, organic, physical, biochemistry, and chemical education)
- 2 hours: 1 hour each CHE 492 and CHE 494
- 8 hours: 4 hours each in CHE 490 and CHE 499
- Successful completion of a thesis based upon original research and oral examination/thesis defense

Graduate coursework in related disciplines may be substituted with consent of the Chemistry Department.

All master's degree programs require a minimum of 50 percent of the non-thesis credit hours applied to the degree to be 400-level courses or above.

Programs Offered

MA Languages, Literatures, and Cultures and Graduate Certificate in Instructional Technology in World Languages

The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures offers a flexible program leading to the Master of Arts in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a focus in either teaching or non-teaching areas. Students may concentrate on either French or Spanish. Subject to departmental approval, it is also possible to take up to three graduate courses in other departments or through study abroad. Within the particular language concentration students must choose one of two areas of emphasis: (1) Literary and Cultural Studies, or (2) Theoretical and Applied Linguistics. Instruction in courses is generally carried out in the language of concentration, with the exception of the core courses.

Program Requirements

This 33 hour program requires:

- 9 credit hours of core courses; select 3 courses from the following: LAN 405, 475 or 480, 485, 490
- 9 credit hours in the area of emphasis (French Literary and Cultural Studies; French Theoretical and Applied Linguistics; Spanish Literary and Cultural Studies; Spanish Theoretical and Applied Linguistics)
- 18 credit hours in the language of concentration (per multi-state teaching requirements); Select courses in French (includes 300 or 400 level courses labelled FRE) or Spanish (includes 300 or 400 level courses labeled SPA)
- sufficient electives to complete a minimum of 33 credit hours of coursework with an average 3.0 GPA

NOTE: Individual courses may count in multiple categories; for instance, FRE 405 simultaneously fulfills hours in primary language, 400-level non-thesis, area of emphasis for French Literature/Culture, and total hours. All master's degree programs require a minimum of 50 percent of the non-thesis credit hours applied to the degree to be 400-level courses or above.

With the approval of the graduate coordinator, electives may include up to 9 credits of 300 or 400 level graduate courses from other departments (note that not all 300-level courses in other departments count for graduate credit; check the graduate catalog for graduate credit designation).

All graduate and eligible undergraduate programs in the College of Business are accredited by AACSB International, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, including separate accreditation for the Accounting programs.

Master of Business Administration

Program Offered

The Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.)

Program Requirements

The M.B.A. degree assumes an undergraduate knowledge base in business and economics which students with undergraduate degrees in business will normally have acquired. Students admitted with non-business undergraduate degrees may have to complete Pre-MBA Program courses before enrolling in the M.B.A. core courses. Specific requirements will be determined by the Associate Dean for MBA and Undergraduate Programs (here after referred to as "Associate Dean"). The responsibility for demonstrating prior academic coverage of the material at the appropriate level rests with the student, and should be completed at least one month prior to the beginning of the first semester of course work.

Proficiency exams are available for the Pre-MBA Program courses. A person may take each proficiency exam only once. Students who have not taken college algebra, economics, accounting, finance, and/or statistics within the past five years are strongly encouraged to take the Pre-MBA Program courses as a refresher prior to their first core course.

Students with a non-business undergraduate degree should expect to complete some or all of the following Pre-MBA Program courses online.

- Fundamentals of Economics
- Financial Accounting
- Managerial Accounting
- Principles of Management
- Principles of Marketing
- Math and Statistical Concepts - Graduate
- Understanding Corporate Finance
- Business Law Essentials

In addition to any Pre-MBA Program courses required, some or all of which may be waived based on an individual's previous academic work, all M.B.A. candidates must complete 42 semester hours including:

- 12 hour beginning skill core courses: MBA 411, 412, 416, 468
- 15 hour central core courses: MBA 421, 427, 430, 440, 450; Students who have successfully completed 12 or more undergraduate semester hours in a required core area may be eligible to substitute a 400-level elective in that area for the required core course.
- 3 hour capstone course: MBA 485
- 12 hours of 400-level graduate business or other pre-approved elective courses. (Graduate courses at the 300-level may not be taken to fulfill the M.B.A. elective requirements). In consultation with a Master of Business Administration advisor, students are able to choose from among a wide offering of elective courses to design a Plan of Study. The choice should be congruent with each student's goals. Elective concentrations are offered based on student demand, including Business Analytics, Financial Management, Human Resource Management, Risk Management, Marketing Management, Organizational Leadership, Project Management; Elective courses taken outside the College of Business require prior approval by the Associate Dean and often involve additional course work to fulfill prerequisites.

Students without relevant full-time work experience are encouraged to consider a professional practice internship as an elective choice; up to three (3) hours of professional practice credit (498 in the ACC, FIL, MKT, and MQM departments) may be used in the Plan of Study toward the degree. A thesis may be substituted for up to six hours of elective course work. Please refer to the thesis section elsewhere in this catalog for Graduate School policies on thesis work.

Course Limitations

No more than a total of three (3) credits can be counted from any 400 (Independent Study) and 498 (Internship) courses. Exceptions must be approved by the Associate Dean. Credit will not be given for course numbers below 400 (no 300-level graduate course will be counted in an M.B.A. Plan of Study). All core and elective courses must be completed within six years from the time of taking the first core course.

Credit-Hour Limitations for Non-Business Graduate Students

While other graduate programs on campus may require and/or give elective credit for selected MBA courses, non-MBA graduate students will not be permitted to exceed 12 credit hours of MBA course work. Non-business students seeking to enroll in MBA courses will first need to obtain their major advisor's permission to register for classes and then must submit to the MBA Office (201 State Farm Hall of Business) a completed "Non-Major Enrollment Request" form. Permission to enroll is dependent upon space availability in the requested course(s) and prior completion of prerequisites. MBA students will have priority in registration.

Courses

Descriptions of courses leading to the M.B.A. degree are found under the Departments of Finance, Insurance and Law; Management and Quantitative Methods; Marketing; Accounting; and Master of Business Administration.

Repetition of Courses in the M.B.A. Program

A student may register officially for an MBA course (core or elective) only twice. A student who completes a course or drops a course after census day (the tenth day of the semester) may officially enroll in the same course only one additional time.

Lauby Teacher Education Center, and the University Laboratory Schools.

The mission of the College of Education is to provide state and national leadership in teacher and administrator education, educational research, and educational policy.

The preparation and continuing professional development of educators is the core of this mission. The guiding framework for teacher education at Illinois State University, "Realizing the Democratic Ideal," captures the values of all education programs. A comprehensive offering of degree, certification, and outreach programs operated year round at both undergraduate and graduate levels constitutes the primary mechanism through which the mission is fulfilled.

The College also fulfills its strategic mission of influencing education by providing support systems for faculty engaged in research, evaluation, product development and other creative activities. The research agenda of the College is focused on production, synthesis, and application of knowledge that contributes to solutions of contemporary education problems and issues.

The third way the College meets its responsibility to influence education is to interact directly with practitioners in the field in a variety of school, agency, and association partnerships. In addition, the College is an active participant in discussions related to educational policy development within national, state and local arenas.

The Illinois Board of Higher Education has approved Illinois State University to offer full master's and doctoral programs off-campus. For further information contact the department chairs of Educational Administration and Foundations, Teaching and Learning, and Special Education.

Master of Fine Arts (M.F.A.)

The Master of Fine Arts in Art is a 60-hour program that emphasizes both theory and practice in the production, history, and teaching of the visual arts. Candidates will be expected to demonstrate artistic proficiency in at least one of the following disciplines: painting and drawing, sculpture and expanded media, printmaking, video, ceramics, photography, or glass. Candidates will also be expected to demonstrate proficiency in written and oral communication.

Students may also engage in an internship or apprenticeship. This may take the form of a guided teaching experience or work in a professional area related to the student's area of interest. The exact nature of this experience will be worked out through counseling between the major advisor and the student and will be tailored to best suit the needs of each student. This project will be subject to approval of the student's graduate committee and the School Director.

It should be understood that the accumulation of 60 semester credit hours is not the primary criterion in evaluating a student’s final achievement. The primary criterion in the evaluation of the MFA degree will be a Thesis Exhibition which demonstrates intellectual maturity and artistic proficiency in the student’s major studio area. In addition to the Thesis Exhibition, the MFA degree requires the completion of a Thesis Supportive Statement, which is a critical essay that focuses on the student’s studio work, its development, and its cultural and historical references. The M.F.A. Candidate will be required to pass an oral defense.

M.F.A. Program Requirements

This 60 hour degree program requires:

- 36 semester hours must be taken in the School of Art, of these at least 24 must be at the 400 level
- 24 semester hours must be in the student's major studio area, of these at least 18 must be at the 400 level
- Of the total required 60 hours, 12 semester hours must be taken in art history, or nine hours may be taken in art history with three hours in related areas such as aesthetics, philosophy, or anthropology, or ART 494 MFA Seminar
- 3 hours: ART 494 MFA Seminar. Taking the MFA Seminar to satisfy Art History requirements does not substitute for this requirement (494 is included within the 36 hours)
- 6 hours: ART 496 M.F.A. Exhibition and Supportive Statement. This will involve a comprehensive exhibition of studio work, an exhibition-related written project, and a comprehensive oral examination. A candidacy review must take place before a student can enroll in ART 496 or schedule the MFA exhibition and must include approval of proposal for the supportive statement. (496 is included within the 36 hours.)

The School reserves the right to keep images of original work produced by graduate students for educational and archival purposes.

This latter requirement is met by passing an examination administered by the appropriate foreign language faculty or a reading language proficiency test.

All master's degree programs require a minimum of 50% of the non-thesis credit hours applied to the degree to be 400-level courses or above.

Master of Fine Arts Program Requirements

Students will be admitted into one of the following concentrations:

- Design (60 hours of study) Students in Design

- A qualifying examination is required prior to an exit portfolio presentation.

All master's degree programs require a minimum of 50 percent of the non-thesis credit hours applied to the degree to be 400-level courses or above.

Academic Advisors

A temporary Portfolio Committee will be assigned upon admission. If a candidate is retained after the initial annual evaluation, the School Director, in consultation with the student and faculty whom the Director deems appropriate, will select the candidate's permanent Portfolio Committee. The Portfolio Committee Chair must come from the student's studio area.

Transfer Credit

A student who does not have an earned master's degree usually may present no more than six semester hours of credit from another college or university for use in meeting the requirements of the M.F.A. degree. However, a student may present all earned hours from an M.A./M.S. program in Theatre Studies at Illinois State University for use in meeting these requirements.

The total hours required for a student with an earned master's degree will be based on an evaluation of the student's portfolio and academic record. However, the final determination will not be made until the student has completed a minimum of six semester hours in his/her major area of emphasis. The student's M.F.A. committee will supervise all evaluations. Refer to M.F.A. Transfer Credit in the Fields of Study and Degrees Granted section.

A minimum of 32 hours must be taken at Illinois State University.

Residency Requirement

A student without an earned master's degree must complete a residency requirement of at least four semesters with at least two of them being full-time, consecutive semesters. A student with an earned master's degree must complete a residency requirement of at least two full-time, consecutive semesters. Summer session may be counted toward the two consecutive semester requirement.

The M.F.A. Portfolio

Each semester of enrollment the M.F.A. candidate will enroll in THD 501, M.F.A. Portfolio, for one hour credit. The portfolio is the backbone of the Master of Fine Arts program. It is designed to ensure the regular and systematic evaluation of the student's progress. The portfolio is a collection of materials, including examples of the student's work where appropriate, reviews, evaluations and other artifacts, which may record or characterize the student's experience in the program. The portfolio also contains the student's responses to evaluations as well as statements from the Portfolio Committee which provide direction for the student's future work in the program.

The student must have a portfolio evaluation for each full semester he or she is in the program. The written results of that evaluation are included in the portfolio. The portfolio provides a cumulative record of the student's progress which is carried over from semester to semester.

Finally, the portfolio, with its record of the student's activities in the program, provides the major objective basis for awarding the degree. Although the student may engage in major creative projects during his or her program, the portfolio stands in lieu of the traditional thesis or creative thesis project which is the culminating experience in many programs.

Qualifying/Comprehensive Examination: A qualifying examination is required prior to the exit portfolio presentation. It may be comprehensive to the extent that it examines the candidate's knowledge of the discipline of theatre; it may include graduate work the student is presenting for the degree; and it may include demonstration of proficiency. The examination will be conducted by the student's M.F.A. Portfolio Committee. The student may request that other faculty members with whom he/she has taken course work participate in the qualifying examination.

Final Portfolio Review and Exit Interview: To be eligible for the exit portfolio presentation, the student must (1) present a grade average of B or better with not more than six (6) hours of a grade of C; (2) have completed (or will complete in the current semester) two semesters of full-time resident study; (3) have a degree audit on file with the Graduate School; (4) have passed a qualifying examination; and (5) pass a final portfolio review and exit to be conducted by his/her M.F.A. Committee. The format of this review and exit will be determined by the M.F.A. Committee, who will, when the work is deemed satisfactory, recommend the student to the appropriate studio area for graduation. At least one week before the Graduate School graduation notification deadline, the School Graduate Faculty will meet to hear the studio area's recommendations. Once the Graduate Faculty has approved the student's graduation, the student will be recommended to the Graduate School for the granting of the degree.

Students should consult with their M.F.A. Portfolio Committees and the School Graduate Advisor for details and the calendar of the final portfolio review and exit. While no student is guaranteed graduation, those whose work is deemed unsatisfactory may be presented opportunities for remediation by their Portfolio Committees.
