General Department Information
The Major in Philosophy is designed to provide a liberal arts core around which a student may build a program of courses to suit a wide variety of career opportunities or other goals. The Department encourages its students to work with a departmental advisor in selecting a minor, a second major, or a set of connected courses in various fields which will best combine with philosophical study to produce a program meeting their needs. Majors are encouraged to pursue undergraduate research and internship opportunities.

Interdisciplinary Minors
The Department of Philosophy participates in a number of interdisciplinary minors at the University. Coursework offered by the Department contributes to the following minors: Civic Engagement and Responsibility, Classical Studies (Languages, Literatures, and Cultures), Cognitive Science, East Asian Studies (Languages, Literatures, and Cultures), Environmental Studies (Geography, Geology, and the Environment), European Studies, International Studies, Middle Eastern and South Asian Studies, Peace and Conflict Resolution Studies, Religious Studies (Philosophy), Women’s and Gender Studies. For further information, please consult the Department advisor as well as the section entitled Interdisciplinary Studies Programs in this Undergraduate Catalog. Note that some minors listed above appear under departments rather than Interdisciplinary Studies Programs; when that is the case, the home Department is noted in parentheses.
