DEAR GRADUATES OF THE ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS OF 2026,

On behalf of the Redbird community, I sincerely congratulate you on a job very well done!

There are only a few moments in life that are forever etched in memory, and based on my experience, I can tell you this is one of them. Your years of studying and all that hard work now culminate in the awarding of something truly precious and valuable—your degree.

I encourage you to take time to savor this moment and to remember, with gratitude, the many people who supported you throughout your academic journey, including your professors, coaches, mentors, family, and friends. As you move forward—whether into your career, further academic pursuits, or wherever your dreams may take you—I hope you always carry the encouragement and enriching experiences from your time at Illinois State University.

In the coming days, you will hear words of congratulations from family, friends, mentors, instructors, and fellow graduates. Embrace it! You have earned every accolade, every celebration, and the title of “graduate.”

You entered this space as a college student. Soon, you will walk across the stage and receive a diploma cover that bears “Illinois State University.” You’ll flip your tassel to the other side of your mortarboard and leave here as one of our alumni, joining the global community of graduates who have come before you, now totaling more than 243,000.

Your connection to the University and the friendships you’ve built here are lifelong. Your legacy as an Illinois State University graduate means you’ll always be a Redbird.

Once again, congratulations on this amazing achievement! I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Aondover Tarhule, Ph.D.

President, Illinois State University

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY

Illinois' first public university

Illinois State University holds a special place among colleges and universities in the state, having been founded in 1857 as the first public institution of higher learning in Illinois.

From humble beginnings in a rented building in Downtown Bloomington, the University today stands as a living symbol of the dreams of such individuals as Jesse Fell, who led the effort to form Illinois State University, and Abraham Lincoln, who, as an attorney, drafted the documents founding the institution.

Now in its 169th year, Illinois State University is a comprehensive institution with 136 degree programs at the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral levels. Since 1857, more than 283,595 degrees have been conferred by the University. As of fall 2025, Illinois State University has a total enrollment of 21,994 students.

The academic programs of Illinois State are complemented by a rich blend of offerings in the fine arts. The University is one of the leading cultural centers in the Midwest. Braden Auditorium brings to Central Illinois audiences performing artists and famous speakers, adding to the excellent and diverse offerings of the University.

Enriched by the foundations of an illustrious past, Illinois State looks with confidence to a future filled with opportunity and promise.

Undergraduate students are eligible to participate in commencement if they will have completed requirements for graduation during the current spring semester or the summer session following May commencement.

Graduate students are eligible to participate in commencement if they will have completed all program requirements by the published deadlines.

The roster of candidates listed in this program is a compilation of all those eligible to participate. It should not be construed as an official list of those who have received or will receive a university degree.

Information in this program is accurate as of March 31, 2026. Students who completed the graduation application process after then are not included in this program. All honor designations are based on the students' last graded semester prior to commencement. For example, eligibility for honor distinction for students graduating in May or August (commencing in May) is based on the previous fall semester.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia of robe and hood are believed to have had their beginnings at the English universities of Oxford and Cambridge during the 12th and 13th centuries. The hoods are a carryover from the times when monks, who operated the universities, wore them to protect their shaved heads in winter or to collect alms when worn as shoulder capes.

Use of the academic robe came to the United States in 1754 with the founding of what is now Columbia University. In 1895 a commission of university officials adopted a universal code of design and color for academic garb, which has undergone various revisions, the latest in 1960.

Styling of robes varies for the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees; the width of border and length of hood increase with the type of degree. The color of the hood lining designates the colors of the institution granting the degree—in the case of Illinois State University the colors are red and white.

GRADUATE DEGREES

The colored borders of the hoods of the candidates for graduate degrees indicate the field of study. Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) candidates wear royal blue, Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) candidates wear light blue, Doctor of Audiology (Au.D.) candidates wear silver gray, and Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.) candidates wear apricot.

TASSELS

The colors of the tassels on the caps of the candidates for undergraduate degrees are red and white, representing the University colors. The tassel colors for graduate degrees are black for the master's degrees and gold for the doctoral degrees.

CORDS

Many departments belong to national honor societies. Students belonging to these organizations receive cords of various colors. The colors of the cords received by undergraduate students who are eligible for degrees with honor distinction comprise gold (summa cum laude), lavender (magna cum laude), white (cum laude), and red (Honors Program Scholars).

PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

The inscription Almus Auctor is Latin for "beloved counselor," reminding us of the University's role as counselor, mentor, friend, and partner. The central symbols represent the formative part the University plays in the lives of those it touches: The upper left suggests education, the continuing goal of the University and its graduates; the lower left, the growth of the University and all who are touched by it; the upper right, research, the pursuit of truth essential to its excellence; and the lower right, the broader community and the strong influence toward better living the University exerts upon it.

BONE SCHOLARS

Several undergraduate students are designated annually as Bone Scholars, in honor of former President Robert G. Bone. The Robert G. Bone Scholars have earned the highest honor Illinois State can bestow on an undergraduate. Only 14 Bone Scholars are selected each year across the entire university. They receive a medallion. Bone Scholars are students who combine superior academic records with full personal development through campus and community activities. Nominations to this honor are made by faculty members, and selection of new Bone Scholars is coordinated through the Honors Program. The candidates for the bachelor's degree who have received this honor are indicated in the departmental/school listings by an asterisk (*) after their names.

DEGREES WITH HONOR DISTINCTION

A student must have completed at least 30 semester hours at Illinois State University to be eligible for a degree with distinction. Students who have an accumulated grade point average of 3.90 through 4.00 are graduated summa cum laude, those with a GPA of 3.80 through 3.89 are graduated magna cum laude, and those with a GPA of 3.65 through 3.79 are graduated cum laude. To be eligible for honor distinction recognition at commencement, all grades earned at Illinois State University are counted in computing the grade point average except those earned during the final spring semester if graduation requirements are completed in the spring or summer. Students who qualify for honor distinction recognition at commencement receive an appropriate cord as part of their academic regalia.

Diploma and transcript notations of graduating cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude are based on the total grade point average, including the final semester.

HONORS PROGRAM DESIGNATIONS

Students receiving Honors in the Major recognition are graduating from the Honors Program having completed special requirements within their majors. Students receiving this distinction are indicated in the departmental/school listings by a solid diamond (◆) after their names. They wear silver cords.

Students who have met the general Honors Program requirements earn the designation of Honors Program Scholar. Those receiving this distinction are indicated in the departmental/school listing by an open circle (○) after their names. They wear red cords.

MILITARY SERVICE RECOGNITION

Commissioned officers are those students who have been attending Illinois State University and participated in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC). ROTC is a college program designed to prepare students in basic military matters while the students earn a degree in order for them to enter into one of the branches of service as an officer. Upon graduation from the University, students are commissioned into their chosen branch of service, attend their required additional military training, and go on to lead in the United States military.

Military veterans are those students who have already served their country. Upon completion of their contracts and earning an honorable discharge, these students attended Illinois State University and are now graduating with their degrees in their respective fields. Veterans at Illinois State University come from all of the branches of service, and their enlisted time ranged from one year to more than 20 years of service to their country.

Some students attend Illinois State University while still serving their country. Illinois State University is home to many students who are serving as active, reserve, or National Guard soldiers.

Veteran and military graduates receive red, white, and blue cords and are indicated in the departmental/school listings by a (‡) after their names.

Arts and Sciences

As the University's largest and most intellectually diverse college, the College of Arts and Sciences serves as Illinois State's academic and cultural core, impacting all students through its general education program. Our commitment to teaching and learning, research, scholarly and creative activity, and service transforms thinking and knowledge. Our liberal arts foundation develops lifelong learners from diverse backgrounds who have the tools to meet the challenges of an increasingly complex and changing global society.

The College of Arts and Sciences is the home of:

- 16 departments and schools in the humanities, social sciences, mathematics, and natural sciences.
- 69 bachelor's degree plans, including 11 distinct secondary teacher education programs.
- 44 master's degree plans and five doctoral degree programs.
- The Eckelmann Speech and Hearing Clinic in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, which provides training for students and services for patients.
- The School of Communication where students can gain professional experience through student-run media such as TV-10, WZND, and The Vidette.
- The University's award-winning solar car team in the Department of Physics.

On behalf of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences, congratulations to the graduating class of 2026! We are so very proud of all that you have accomplished during your time in the College of Arts and Sciences at Illinois State University. We wish you the very best as you embark on your next adventure.

Your arts and sciences education has exposed you to a breadth of tools and perspectives that will prepare you for a lifetime of career choices. The natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities may employ very different methods and perspectives, but every single field within arts and sciences, in its own way, seeks answers to the same fundamental questions—about the nature of our world and our humanity. You have learned how to think critically, communicate orally and in writing, collect and analyze data, understand diverse perspectives, and ask the right questions when confronted with a problem. I ask you to use the education you have acquired to the benefit of your communities and your world.

Although you are graduating, you will always be a member of the Redbird family. We encourage you to stay connected with our college and your former professors, join the Alumni Association, and visit us on campus whenever you can. I encourage you to not only give back to the College of Arts and Sciences by supporting college activities, programs, and scholarships, but also by keeping us updated on the many achievements you will experience in your careers and personal lives. We will always take great pride in your achievements, and we will be rooting for you!

I join you in thanking families and friends who have supported you during your time with us. I also offer my sincere thanks to everyone in the College of Arts and Sciences who has contributed to your success at Illinois State University.

Please accept the college's sincerest congratulations on this amazing milestone. Your life path may take unexpected twists and turns, but I know that you can become all that you wish to be. Go ahead and set your sights on new opportunities—you are ready!

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and leaders of the Illinois State University College of Education, I sincerely congratulate you on achieving your academic goals. You are now part of a community of educators, organizational leaders, and prestigious alumni who make a significant impact on our communities across Illinois, the United States, and the world. As you begin your journey as classroom teachers or continue to grow along your professional trajectory, you have gained invaluable knowledge and skills that will shape the future of our profession for years to come.

Illinois State is the largest producer of teachers among all public universities in the United States. Our College of Education provides programs for educators at all points of their professional continuum. You are strongly encouraged to consider the College of Education's additional advanced degree programs to help you meet your professional goals.

It is no surprise that school districts and other learning organizations prefer to hire Redbird educators. You carry this legacy with you. Because you will always be part of the Redbird educator family, we welcome you to engage with us as alumni. We also want to hear from you about how your Illinois State educational experiences prepared you for success both personally and professionally.

The College of Education extends a special thank you to the family members, friends, mentors, and other support systems that contributed to your academic success. We encourage you to personally thank those who supported you throughout your journey at Illinois State.

Congratulations to you!

POINTS OF PRIDE

Fine Arts students have successfully built careers in film and digital media, video and illustration, game design, audio and music production, VR/XR, arts administration, and the music business.

Wonsook Kim College of Fine Arts students excel in music, art, theatre, and dance teacher education, and are considered to be exemplary role models for learning and teaching throughout Illinois schools.

The Big Red Marching Machine enrolls more than 400 students who play at athletics events, Homecoming, community activities, and have competed internationally at the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin, Ireland, most recently in March 2025.

School of Theatre, Dance, and Film students are regularly recognized at the Region 3 American College Theatre Festival, this year advancing to semi-final and final rounds in the areas of acting, directing, musical theatre, stage management, and theatre studies with two students advancing to the national festival.

Dancers attend the annual American College Dance Association (ACDA) where they present faculty- and student-choreographed works. In May 2025, Dance made Illinois State University history with the first-ever appearance on the ACDA National College Dance Festival stage.

Submissions by graphic design students were selected as finalists for the national Flux Student Design Competition held by AIGA Baltimore.

Students from the Schools of Art and Theatre, Dance, and Film were recognized as finalists this year in the Three Minute Thesis Competition.

Congratulations, Wonsook Kim College of Fine Arts class of 2026! You have shown remarkable creativity, grit, and passion throughout your time here. Your experience with us has prepared you not only with the technical skills of your discipline but also with the ability to think critically, nurture curiosity, and innovate fearlessly. These qualities will guide you as you launch your professional careers and make your mark on the world. You have left an indelible impression on the college, and we are eager to see where life takes you next.

I want to acknowledge the important role your support networks have played in championing your journey. Their encouragement and sacrifices have been a vital part of your success. Today, all of you share in the joy of this incredible milestone. The degree you receive today is a reflection not only of your hard work, but also of the people who have stood by you. A hearty congratulations and thank you to all those who believed in your arts and design aspirations.

As graduates, you now join a distinguished group of artists, designers, performers, educators, and scholars who have made lasting contributions to their fields, their communities, and their world. We proudly welcome you into this vibrant community, confident that you will continue to inspire and lead wherever your path may take you. Please keep in touch with us, with your faculty, with your mentors, and, of course, your fellow alumni. We look forward to celebrating your future successes and impact.

What a great day to be a Fine Arts Redbird!

THE COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY AT ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY ...

Is home to eight departments and schools housed in 13 buildings on campus, plus the University Farm at Lexington and the Horticulture Center.

Has 5,033 students and approximately 250 faculty and staff members.

Has over 70 majors or sequences.

Has 23 nationally accredited programs.

Includes Gamma Phi Circus, the oldest collegiate circus in the United States.

Is home to over 40 active registered student organizations.

Congratulations, graduates, on behalf of the entire College of Applied Science and Technology (CAST) faculty and staff across our academic units—Department of Agriculture, Department of Criminal Justice Sciences, Department of Family and Consumer Sciences, Department of Health Sciences, Department of Military Science, Department of Technology, School of Information Technology, and School of Kinesiology and Recreation.

Today, we are proud to celebrate your accomplishments at Illinois State University with your family and friends at this commencement ceremony. While we tend to think of this ceremony as the end of your academic journey at Illinois State, the term “commencement” means a beginning, or refers to blazing a new trail. Today is a perfect day to celebrate the culmination of your degree, and our CAST faculty and staff are also excited today to consider with you the great journeys that lie ahead as you pursue your future professional goals and aspirations.

One of the ties that binds our academic programs together in CAST is the “A” in that acronym, the term “Applied.” With the applied and experiential learning you have experienced during your time at Illinois State, you are well-prepared to make meaningful contributions to society and to make a difference in your chosen field. We are confident in your abilities to apply yourself to solve the real-world problems confronting us today and in the future. You have been challenged academically to move from theoretical concepts to applied learning, and you are prepared to take on the new challenges that await you.

We are proud of all you have accomplished, and I am confident that you will make Illinois State University and the College of Applied Science and Technology even more proud during the adventures ahead. I look forward to hearing about all your accomplishments. Please come back to campus often to share your stories and successes with fellow Redbirds and share your achievements at Alumni@IllinoisState.edu. Congratulations and best wishes!

Dr. Chad McEvoy, Dean

STUDENT SPEAKER

Marketing major and Jack North Award recipient Ryan Russell has been a cornerstone of the College of Business. During his time at Illinois State, Russell led initiatives for Business Week, served on the Student Leadership Advisory Board, and shaped the college's digital presence on the COB Social Media Team.

His campus impact includes serving as Student Trustee, IFC President, and Vice President of Sigma Pi. Outside of Illinois State, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the American Red Cross Central Illinois Chapter.

Upon graduation, Russell will begin his career in Caterpillar's Field Representative Development Program. "Over the last four years, Illinois State has truly become my home," Russell said. "The friendship, mentorship, and opportunities I've found here have shaped my career and my character. I look forward to transitioning from a student leader to an active, involved alumnus, giving back to the Redbird community that has given so much to me."

Congratulations! The faculty and staff of the College of Business commend you on your graduation from one of the top-accredited business schools in the United States. You have successfully met the challenges of a rigorous and demanding education. We are very proud of your accomplishments.

Our college has over 40,000 alumni who serve in important positions of responsibility in businesses across the country and all over the world. Thanks to the accomplishments of our alumni, the value of a degree from the College of Business continues to rise year after year.

As you prepare to start a new chapter of your life, you are well-equipped to make meaningful and significant contributions to business and society. You have developed knowledge and skills that are highly valued in business today and that will serve you well into the future—leadership, critical thinking, communication, ethics, and deep content knowledge in your chosen area of business. College of Business graduates also understand that advanced learning does not end with this important milestone. The same curiosity for learning that brought you to the College of Business at Illinois State University will continue throughout your professional career.

In years to come, some of your fondest memories about the College of Business will be the classmates with whom you studied and the faculty and staff who contributed the extra time to ensure that you had a world-class business education. I ask that you not only maintain a personal network with your classmates, but also stay in touch with the College of Business. Return often to share your knowledge, success, and professional passion with the next generation of business leaders. I ask that you "pay it forward."

Sincere congratulations to each of you and best wishes for continued success.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AT ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY ...

Enrolled its inaugural cohort in fall 2025.

Has three initial programs of study that are being offered: electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, and general engineering.

Is developing an industry-informed and industry-involved curriculum for students to meet the needs of businesses in Illinois, nationally, and internationally.

The College of Engineering is the newest college at Illinois State University. After years of thoughtful planning and development, we proudly welcomed our inaugural cohort in fall 2025. More than 171 students joined the program, representing a wide range of backgrounds, experiences, and aspirations. We look forward to celebrating our first graduating class in spring 2029.

Our students are preparing to become the engineers of tomorrow—equipped to be career-ready from day one. The College of Engineering emphasizes project-based learning and applied research, while highlighting the meaningful impact engineers have across diverse communities. Our vision is to be a leader in engineering education and to help transform the field by expanding access and opportunity for students from all backgrounds.

That commitment is already evident in the success of our students. Academic excellence was demonstrated early, with 58 students earning a place on the College of Engineering's first-ever Dean's List. From the beginning, Redbird engineers engage in hands-on, team-based learning through lab and design projects embedded in their coursework. Students have already showcased their innovation and problem-solving skills through poster presentations, sharing their work with campus and industry partners.

Our students benefit from small class sizes and instruction from dedicated, full-time faculty, fostering meaningful connections and individualized support. Beyond the classroom, student leadership continues to grow—through collaboration with faculty and staff, students have successfully launched six engineering-focused registered student organizations, building community and a strong foundation for the future.

Student success remains at the heart of everything we do. To support our students, we provide proven resources and initiatives, including early alert programming, a state-of-the-art first-year engineering experience, tutoring and supplemental instruction, facilitated study groups, and robust support for engineering competitions and student organizations connected to professional societies.
