Board of Trustees
Illinois State University
Authorization to Name the Barro Family Office

Illinois State University Athletics respectfully requests naming the offensive line coach's office inside the Kaufman Football Building. This naming reflects and recognizes the generous financial commitment by Bruce Barro for the Redbird Athletics program.

Bruce Barro is an alum, former Redbird football player, and great friend to Illinois State University's football program. He enjoys attending an ISU football game each year and supporting the current team.

Bruce was coached by current Offensive Line Coach Harold Etheridge during his time at Illinois State, which makes the proposed naming more fitting. Bruce and his family are passionate about making sustainable improvements that enhance the football program and allow Redbirds to be more successful during their time at ISU and beyond.

Bruce Barro's financial commitment to ISU Athletics will continue to elevate and enhance student athlete experiences. As a result, we propose naming the offensive line coach's office inside the Kaufman Football Building as the Barro Family Office.
