Illinois State University
Authorization to Name the Greg Slawko Theatre Studio

The Wonsook Kim College of Fine Arts (WKCFA) respectfully requests approval to name the Acting Classroom I (Movement) inside the WKCFA Commons Building the “Greg Slawko Theatre Studio.” This naming reflects and recognizes the generous financial commitment made by Kyle and Steve Scanlon in memory of their brother and brother-in-law.

Greg Slawko graduated from Illinois State University with a BFA in 1979 and went on to become a highly successful, sought-after costume designer for dance, film, and theatre. Greg’s time at ISU laid the foundation for his remarkable, award-winning career. His dedication to theatre design, his generosity as a teacher, and his passion for the arts continue to inspire family, friends, colleagues, and recipients of the Gregory W. Slawko Memorial Scholarship.

Kyle and Steve Scanlon’s financial commitment to the Wonsook Kim College of Fine Arts will elevate student experiences for years to come. As a result, we propose the Acting Classroom I (Movement) inside the WKCFA Commons Building be named the “Greg Slawko Theatre Studio.”
